Fun day gives big boost to appeal for Cameron's trip to Disney World

MYSTERY MAN'S £1,000 DONATION

Cameron Woodhouse enjoying his fun day

THE last wish of an eight-year-old boy has moved a step closer to being granted following a £1,000 donation from a generous stranger.

Family and friends of Cameron Woodhouse, who lives in Brownhills, held a fun day last Saturday at Springhill Primary School, Burntwood to raise money to send him and his family on a dream holiday to Disney World in Florida.

Cameron was diagnosed with rhabdomyosarcoma, a rare form of cancer in 2010.

Despite undergoing chemotherapy and going into remission earlier this year, a recent biopsy on a lump on his arm revealed the cancer had returned and chemotherapy would not be as successful a second time.

The fun day was held at the school where Cameron's aunt Melanie Yates works as a teacher. It featured stalls, an ambulance for children to explore and a visit from the The Hogg Harley Club.

There was a yellow balloon release to remember other sufferers of childhood cancer.

The £1,000 cheque from the donor, who does not wish to be named, pushed the total for the day to more than £2,090.

Cameron's aunt Joanna Malin-Burke said that the family were "overwhelmed by the donation" and that "the generosity of some people brings a tear to the eye".

Family and friends have also signed up for a number of other ways to help raise money.

These included sponsored toddlers, which are sponsored walks for the under fours, a Facebook auction at the Get Cameron To Disneyworld page and a sponsored 26 mile walk from Burntwood to Rugeley via Lichfield to be completed by Cameron's aunt Melanie Yates and family friend Carol Critchley.

Anyone wishing to donate should visit www.paypal.com and make payment to dreaminglittledreams@hotmail.com

Community groups get benefits from £2.3m handouts

COMMUNITY groups and projects in Staffordshire are set to benefit from £2.3million worth of handouts.

The board of Staffordshire Environmental Fund will contribute £435,000 towards the grants which total £2,314,975.

Among the organisations which are set to benefit from thousands in funding are Lichfield Cathedral, the National Memorial Arboretum and Chasetown Football Club.

The fund is an independent company that was set up in 1997 to manage grant schemes.

Chief executive John Dutton said: "Each of the projects clearly showed it benefited the environment and the community and reflected the self-help of the organisation. The projects also met the relevant objectives of the Landfill Communities Fund."

This fund is financed from the proceeds of the Landfill Tax. Up to £78.1 million will be made available nationally in the next 12 months.

Contribute

Under it, the firms that operate landfill sites are able to contribute to environmental bodies such as the Staffordshire fund.

Chasetown FC is to receive £30,000 towards a new stand and Lichfield Cathedral has been handed £30,000 to help with the refurbishment of the Herkenrode windows.

The National Memorial Arboretum, in Alrewas, will receive £100,000 in preparation for a second land train.

Harrison's Recreation and Welfare Institute's bowling green, in Great Wyrley, will receive £15,029 for improvements, as will Fradley Youth and Community Centre which is set to receive £30,000.

St Mildred's Church, in Whiston, near Penkridge, is to be handed £19,238, while the Millennium Green, in Derrington, will be given £11,250 to provide a water borehole to maintain the village pond.

Bishops Wood Play Area, in Brewood, will net £23,897, and £21,655 has been set aside for Brocton Village Hall.

Pubman Darren ready to wax lyrical for charity

THE manager of a pub in Staffordshire is preparing himself for a hair-raising experience to raise money for charity.

Darren Basford, manager of Samson Blewitt in Pye Green, is being waxed and shaved at the pub on April 25 in aid of Cancer Research and Age Concern.

The 6ft 8in man mountain is also auctioning off strips of wax that the highest bidder can rip off him. Mr Basford, aged 37, said: "I'm getting more nervous the closer the day gets. I just thought it was a good idea to raise money for a good cause."

The all-day event will also include a bouncy castle, bungee run, bucking bronco, a disco and a karaoke.

The pub will also be staging a barbeque, with food being supplied by Shire Steakhouses, and all proceeds will go towards the two charities.

Mr Basford has already raised more than £500 from sponsorship alone. Anyone wishing to sponsor Mr Basford or go along to the fun day should contact Samson Blewitt on 01543 871372.

Going to the polls for district council elections

LICHFIELD District Council has published its full list of nominees for the local elections that take place on Thursday, May 5.

The candidates will battle it out across 26 wards, although Bourne Vale, Colton Mavesyn Ridware, Kings Bromley, Longdon and Whittington have already been declared a no contest with only Conservative candidates standing in those areas.

There has been a total of 129 nominees to step forward, with the split of candidates being: Conservatives 56; Labour 37; Liberal Democrat 22; UKIP 4; Independent candidates 4; and Green Party 2.

With the high speed rail, HS2, link due to cut through villages across the Lichfield area, that is likely to be a big and contentious issue for councillors to look at over the coming months and years.

Lichfield residents will be able to have their say on HS2 when the public consultation comes to the city.

The Guildhall will play host to the event on June 8 and 9 where the high speed rail route will be discussed.

More information on all of the candidates can be downloaded from Lichfield District Council's website at www.lichfield.gov.uk/election

WITH a minority Liberal Democrat administration currently in charge at Cannock Chase District Council there's certainly all to play for.

The Liberal Democrats could have a fight on their hands if they want to retain control of Cannock Chase Council, especially given some national malaise over their taking coalition power with the Conservatives.

Candidates on the ground locally will have to work hard on the doorsteps to convince voters to stick with them.

Council leader Neil Stanley and three of his cabinet members are among those fighting for their seats this time round.

But while Labour is the main opposition in the district, it will by no means be easy pickings for them.

At the General Election, voters in Cannock Chase rejected the Labour representative in favour of a Tory MP.

It was one of the biggest shocks of the general election when Tory Aidan Burley was voted in ahead of Labour's Sue Woodward.

The 31-year-old overcame a 9,000 plus Labour majority to take the seat by more than 3,000 votes - a swing of around 14 per cent.

Cannock Chase Council stages elections three years out of every four.

Going extra mile for customers

STAFF at Cannock Shopping Centre are hoping to go that extra mile for customers.

GVA, the centre's management agents, are rolling out Customer Care Training to all of their staff. They are ensuring their employees make that extra effort by giving them additional training in customer care.

Among the first customers to benefit was shopper Margaret Stratford, from Chasetown, who was given a helping hand by hygiene manager Steve Mason and customer liaison officer James Byrne.

Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "While we already pride ourselves on customer satisfaction and customer care we want our customers to know that we are now looking at going that extra mile to ensure that their visit to the shopping centre is a pleasurable experience." The shopping centre has a number of free events set up to keep shoppers entertained over the Easter break.

Yesterday (Wednesday), people could join in on an Easter Egg hunt with the Play Rangers.

On Saturday (April 23) between 11am and 3pm visitors can be entertained by their life-sized marionette style puppet show.

Homes bid on industrial site

Night to help the heroes at club

Application seeks to build 75 houses

PLANNERS looked set this week to back a scheme for 75 homes on part of an industrial estate in Cannock.

The application involves a mix of detached, semi-detached and terraced family properties of two and three storeys, including affordable housing, with a central area of open space on Walsall Road.

The main part of the development is within the gated Rumer Hill industrial estate, which contains a 24-hour container depot.

The company will be required to stack containers along its boundary with the proposed site to act as a noise barrier.

There are currently three businesses on the estate with leases due to expire in May, July and August this year.

Alternative sites have been offered by the developer, St Modwen Properties, which has other commercial premises in the Cannock area should the firms be minded to relocate. The scheme is part of a local government requirement to provide 5,800 new homes in Cannock Chase between 2006 and 2026.

Some 2,400 of those must be within the main urban area of Cannock, Hednesford and Heath Hayes.

A strategic housing assessment of the site stated it was capable of accommodating up to 124 new homes.

The application was recommended for outline approval at a Planning Control Committee meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

A report to the meeting described the figure as a "clear overestimate" which did not take into account the need to provide buffer zones and retain a pumping reservoir. The report was recommending that containers should be stacked no less than six-high along the boundary following worries about levels of noise from vehicles.

Concern has been raised about a gap - forming an emergency access - in the line of containers. However planning officers says the depot drivers have no right of access to cross into the application site.

St Modwen proposes to build a 10ft-high embankment topped with a 6ft acoustic fence as a further shield against industrial noise.

There will also be good-standard double glazing and anti-noise treatments to ventilation openings and pressure seals on windows.

A SOCIAL club is hosting a fundraising night for Help for Heroes. The Chase Social Workers Club in Hednesford has organised the event on May 6. All proceeds from ticket sales will go towards the forces' charity.

Dave Chiles of the social club said: "I don't think the lads should be out there but if we can't bring them home we can at least do our bit to help them."

Five artists will perform on the night, including local acts John Crosley, Steve Martin and duo Hank and Geoff. Musical will range from 60s 70s classics to more modern pop hits.

There will also be a raffle on the night and Mr Chiles said: "We want to get as many people involved as we can. The size of the club means we only have space for 140 people so people should buy their tickets in advance."

The event is open to all over 18s, and starts at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £3. Call Mr Chiles on 01543 871564.

Bosses must pay £26,000 for worker's severe burns

A STAFFORDSHIRE firm where a worker suffered serious burns from a flash fire after opening an oven door has been ordered to pay more than £26,000 by magistrates.

The 24-year-old suffered acute burns on his face, arm, neck and left hand when the flames from the 400C oven caught his upper body in March last year. Enviro-Strip (UK) Ltd, of Cross Keys, Lichfield, strips paint and coatings from metal parts for the automotive industry.

The victim, who has asked not to be named, worked at the firm's Tamworth premises.

Preventable

He was airlifted to hospital and put into an induced coma and kept on a high dependency ward for four days, a Health and Safety Executive prosecutor told Burton upon Trent magistrates.

Investigators found a safety device designed to prevent the door from being opened at temperatures above 260C had been deliberately bypassed.

The court was told the company failed to consider the risk of fire and explosion from the paints inside the oven, the effect of introducing additional oxygen by opening the oven door, and at what temperature it was safe to open the oven.

The employee is back at work, but cannot stay out in sunlight as his skin is now too sensitive.

The company, which admitted breaching health and safety regulations, was fined £20,000 and ordered to pay £6,491 costs.

After the hearing, HSE inspector Gail Pannell said: "This was a very serious, entirely preventable incident that could easily have been fatal and it left a man on a life support machine."

"He is extremely lucky to have recovered from his injuries."

"When working with potentially dangerous substances at high temperatures, companies must carry out proper risk assessments and set up a safe system of work."

This includes checking safety devices are fit for purpose and maintained."

Bangers for Easter

HEDNESFORD Hills Raceway hosts van banger racing on Easter Monday.

The programme starts at 1.30pm and includes lightning rods, hot rods and Mini stock car races.

There is also a racing programme on the Monday, May 2 bank holiday, starting from 1.30pm.

There will be a caravan grand prix, a qualifying round for the national hot rods world championship and a track legends race.

Lee Hanson and Naomi Aspley from Crown Carveries 'Raise a Roast' to the Royal wedding

Diners urged to 'Raise a Roast' to Royal couple

A CANNOCK restaurant is urging locals to 'Raise a Roast' to William and Kate, by offering up a free carvery.

To celebrate the upcoming nuptials of Prince William and Kate Middleton, the Mill Farm, a Crown Carvery, is offering a free meal to customers who arrive armed with a commemorative plate from a previous Royal wedding.

Sue Gibbons, manager of the Mill Farm, in Lichfield Road, said: "We always give our customers a royal welcome but we wanted to commemorate the most talked about wedding of the year by offering our customers a token of what we do best – a carvery."

The offer, available for 10 days between

April 19 and April 29, excluding Sundays and bank holidays and is available to those with plates from all previous royal weddings but excludes commemorative plates for the marriage of William and Kate.

Mrs Gibbons added: "It doesn't matter if you have a plate from Charles and Diana's wedding in 1981, or Edward and Sophie's in 1999 simply bring in your royal memento from the day and you'll be able to enjoy a free carvery in return."

"Who knows, we may even unearth some antiques from days gone by."

The Mill Farm will be decorating the inside of the restaurant and serving a special menu on April 29 for customers wishing to watch the wedding in the restaurant.

Academy status beckons for town's sports college

Eggs treat for young patients

AROUND 30 bikers from the West Midlands delivered Easter eggs to young burns victims at Birmingham Children's Hospital.

The West Midlands branch of Virago Star Owners Club left Burntwood Rugby Club to travel along the A34 to Birmingham to bring Easter cheer to the young patients.

Club member George James said the club adopted a different charity every year. Last year it was decided to do something for Burnaid, the West Midlands Regional Burns Unit Trust Fund.

The bikers bought an egg each and presented it to the young patients.

Tour

Mr James, of Walsall, said that the members were given a tour around the wards which cater for every age, from babies to teenagers.

He said: "It opens your eyes a bit."

"I have two sons. They have grown up now and, by the grace of God, they never suffered any serious injuries."

"What surprised me is how many babies and four or five-year-olds have burns from kettles and hot cups of tea and coffee."

Members of Virago Star Owners Club ready to set out to deliver Easter eggs to young burns victims at Birmingham Children's Hospital

A BURNTWOOD school is gearing up to become an academy – and may even change its name.

Chasetown Specialist Sports College in Burntwood is part-way through the application with the Department for Education.

The application has recently been received and accepted by the government department.

Officials now need to discuss the funding agreement being transferred from Staffordshire County Council's local education authority to be funded from central government.

Councillor Liz Staples, cabinet member for education and skills at Staffordshire County Council, said: "As far as I know they have applied to transfer to become an academy."

"We have said in Staffordshire that we will support schools that want to transfer to become academies."

"We work very closely with our schools in Staffordshire – we always say they are the Staffordshire family of schools and we will support their decision."

A recent Ofsted inspection marked the school as being 'Good with Outstanding features'.

Benefit

It is understood that the school may change its name, and one being considered is Erasmus Darwin Academy.

An academy is a school which can benefit from greater freedoms to innovate and raise standards.

These include freedom from local authority control, the ability to set their own pay and conditions for staff, freedoms around the delivery of the curriculum and the ability to change the lengths of terms and school days.

Some academies, generally those which are under-achieving, also benefit from being sponsored.

The school is one of a number in Staffordshire which have applied to become independent of the local authority.

No-one from the school was available to comment.

Plans drawn up for barracks redevelopment

FINAL plans for the £100 million major redevelopment of Whittington Barracks, near Lichfield, have been drawn up.

Approval has already been given for its transformation into the home of military medicine. In January, the Government reaffirmed its commitment to the scheme.

New TPS Consult has submitted a final planning application, and subject to approval, work will start in September.

The project will relocate trainees, medics and management from around the country to the base.

It will provide them with high-quality training facilities and living accommodation.

Funding has been secured, and the contract for the building work has been awarded to Wolverhampton construction firm Carillon Plc.

The scheme includes new training facilities, a learning centre, a lecture theatre, messes for officers, warrant officers and senior non-commissioned officers.

There will also be living accommodation for permanent staff and a new dining and leisure facility for junior ranks.

These will replace the facilities at Keogh Barracks, in Surrey. Planning approval to demolish selected buildings and redevelopment of the barracks to create a mixed-use military development comprising education and training, office, storage and museum facilities was approved in 2007.

Now an amended final planning application has been submitted to Lichfield District Council. A statement from the Defence Infrastructure Organisation said: "DIO's top priority is supporting our armed forces by delivering the best possible facilities in which to live, work, and prepare for operations."

"The current application amends the plans submitted in 2007 and requires the local planning authority's approval."

The first phase of the project, completed last year, saw Princess Alexandra open Colman House, the new HQ of Joint Medical Command at Whittington Barracks. It is also the new headquarters of the Surgeon General.

When the site is finished in 2014, 2,000 military and civilian staff will be based there within easy travelling distance of Birmingham's Selly Oak Hospital where many servicemen and women are treated.

Families tell of alarm over gas bottle blasts

PEOPLE in a Hednesford street which was cordoned off after a fire broke out near highly flammable gas cylinders have spoken about the drama.

Several cats had to be evacuated from a cattery which was only feet away from where the gas was being stored. Millview Cats Hotel forms part of the property in Cannock Wood

A police officer mans the cordon at Cannock Wood Road

Road where the fire started in a workshop.

The owner of the property did not want to speak about the incident, but neighbours revealed how the drama unfolded on Sunday.

Julie McAllister said: "We noticed that smoke was coming from the back yard and my husband, and another neighbour called the firemen."

"We were told to stay away from the windows."

Mrs McAllister said they initially thought they might have to make a full evacuation.

Eric Martin, aged 79, said: "They told us to stay away from the windows and remain in the front of the house."

"It's nice and quiet up here. It's just one of those things."

Mr Martin said the cats had to be moved from the cattery into the safety of the house.

Police officers set up a road block on Sunday morning which acted as a precautionary cordon measuring about 350 yards from Littleworth Road at one end to New Hayes Road at the other side.

Hazard

Firefighters' main concerns were the highly flammable acetylene cylinders found in the workshop.

Cannock's assistant area commander Ian Broadhead said: "A cordon was put into place as there were five properties within the potential hazard zone."

Fire crews battled to cool down gas cylinders pouring water on to them for 24 hours before the cordon was lifted.

Firefighters spent time after the fire was out reassuring people in the exclusion zone and handed them leaflets about the risks of acetylene.

The colourless gas is not especially toxic, but it is highly flammable.

Renewable energy was in the spotlight at the fair.

To keep families entertained there was Amazing Wayne with his circus tricks, horse and carriage rides and the Ryknild Rabble Morris Dancers.

Project at dam is pushing ahead

THE £3million pound repair project at Chasewater Dam is progressing well, according to Lichfield District Council.

A council spokesman said the authority's contractor was continuing to work on the site's railway causeway.

He said the contractor, Galliford Try, was creating a concrete foundation raft that would hold a new culvert in place.

Neil Turner, Lichfield District Council's director of leisure, parks and play, said: "They also strengthened the bog mats at the toe of the dam, in preparation for the arrival of the rig that will install the sheet piling."

"We agreed the design of the spillway walls and weir."

"We also sent off samples of earth from the dam so they can be tested alongside the proposed filter material to make sure they work together."

Earlier this month, the council warned that people were putting themselves at risk by trespassing on the site of drainage works.

Short-cut

A warning has now been issued by the council urging people to stay away. The site is full of deep holes and unstable structures which could cause serious injury, or even death, the authority has claimed.

The council says it has evidence people have been on the site in bargies and on horses, and it is believed people have also been using the land as a short-cut.

The work should be completed by late summer at a cost of £3 million. Gallons of water have been drained from the reservoir, the walls of which have not been repaired for 200 years.

The work was commissioned after a report prepared by Lichfield District Council warned that urgent action was needed.

Mr Turner said that if the work had not been carried out, the walls of the dam could have been breached by a heavy flood.

If the work had been put off any longer a tide of water could have escaped towards Shenstone and Tamworth, risking many deaths.

Students prepare for growing career

A NEW crop of horticultural apprentices have started their studies at South Staffordshire College.

They will be hoping to follow in the footsteps of past successful students, including silver medallists at the BBC Live Gardeners' World Show.

New students began their inductions recently for the level two programme at the college's Rodbaston campus with a tour and introduction to the qualification. The new apprentices will combine their fortnightly classes at college with their own place of work.

They will be mentored by head gardener Sarah Davies and ground person Lorna Gellatly and also receive support from past apprentice Hannah Williams, now deputy head gardener at Rodbaston.

Pub razed to make way for convenience store

BULLDOZERS have moved in to flatten a once-popular Staffordshire pub which has become an eyesore since being boarded up more than three years ago.

A Co-op convenience store and two other shops are to replace the former Pear Tree Inn at Queensway, Rugeley, creating 15 jobs.

The site has been subject to several unsuccessful housing applications since its closure. The plot, which is three-quarters of an acre, has become a magnet for vandals. In 2008 it was set alight by arsonists and more recently a security firm was hired to keep yobs at bay.

Last year a 500-signature petition against the shops scheme was handed in by local retailers and residents amid fears of anti-social behaviour. There were also two letters of objection.

Protesters initially said they wanted another pub to be built on the site but the council said the issue was not formally raised. Official concerns included highway safety, lack of drainage and the fact that there were existing shops which already catered for the community.

However the highways authority had no objections, and the drains will connect directly to the public sewer and not the private drainage system peculiar to the Pear Tree estate.

It was also considered that the scheme offered an improvement to shopping facilities for local people. As a result the planning control committee approved the plans in December last year. The pub, boarded up since 2007, is being demolished by Suma Development.

The Shrewsbury-based developer has not yet announced which other businesses are lined up for the site.

When the National Coal Board built the Pear Tree estate they also included a pub to serve the miners moving into the new community.

It opened in November 1955 and thrived until 2007 when the recession and smoking ban took their toll.

Firm is fined £40,000 over worker's death

Mark Palmer

I will always miss Mark says widow

THE family of Mark Palmer said they hoped lessons had been learned from his tragic death.

Mr Palmer's widow Toni Palmer said she did not want any other family to experience the pain they had gone through since he died in 2008.

Speaking after the prosecution of Hydraline Engineering Ltd, she paid tribute to her husband but said she took no comfort from the outcome of the court case.

"Mark was a fantastic man and we will always miss having him in our lives," she said.

"Nothing can ever bring him back and we take no comfort from the prosecution of the company he was working for or their guilty plea."

"We are, however, pleased that after nearly three years they have finally decided to accept responsibility for Mark's accident."

"We hope that lessons can be learned from what happened to Mark and that no other family has to go through what we have gone through."

"I hope that we can finally lay Mark to rest and move on with our lives," she added.

Tributes flooded in to Mr Palmer following his tragic death, describing him as a popular friend who was always the "life and soul of the party".

Device

Health and Safety Executive inspector Wayne Owen said: "It is a tragedy for Mr Palmer's family."

"Had the company provided a suitable tested support device this would, in conjunction with a safe system of work, have stopped the loading arm falling on to Mr Palmer - and prevented his death."

A Cannock engineering firm has been fined £40,000 after it "took safety risks for granted" and a fitter, who was a father-of-two, was crushed to death.

Mark Palmer, aged 46, of Cannock, was crushed by the digger he was working on at a farm near Penkridge in 2008. His employer, Hydraline Engineering Ltd, of Hawks Green, admitted failing to ensure the safety of employees and failing to carry out a risk assessment.

Stafford Crown Court heard he died accidentally removing a plate on a Volvo wheeled loader at Well Dairy Farm, Bradley. A sudden release of hydraulic oil holding up the heavy loading arm saw it crash down and trap him against the machine.

Judge Simon Tonking said: "There is no doubt from the facts this tragic accident was avoidable and came about to a significant extent, although not wholly, as a result of the defendant's failures. The risk assessment which they had carried out lacked any proper analysis of the specific risks which their employees faced when working on specific machines."

Mr James Puzey, prosecuting, said Mr Palmer, of Wolverhampton Road, worked alone on US variant Volvo he had not worked on before on March 7, 2008.

He worked under an unsupported hydraulic boom - a practice prohibited by Volvo's operating manual.

Risks dealing with wheeled loaders were "not obscure," said Mr Puzey.

Machines

A colleague warned Mr Palmer about working underneath unsupported arms of loaders.

A Health and Safety Executive investigation found Hydraline gave Mr Palmer insufficient training for working with hydraulic machinery.

Mr Harry Vann, defending, said the firm pleaded guilty at the first opportunity and co-operated fully with the investigation. The family-owned firm, with 10 employees and a turnover of £1 million, specialises in hydraulics fitting to machines. It previously had a blameless record on health and safety. It must pay £20,000 legal costs.

Family inspiration for artwork

A 12FT STEEL sculpture has been officially unveiled at the site of a Cannock children's centre.

The family tree-inspired piece called Lasting Impressions now has pride of place outside the Cannock Chase Children's Centre in Cannock Road.

The £15,000 artwork was funded by the National Lottery through Arts Council England and Staffordshire Heritage and Arts Service.

It was produced by artist Andrew Small following a lengthy consultation with centre users and residents of the town.

Dani Lewsley, education manager at the centre, said: "It is made out of steel predominantly and wood. It is a tree structure and is green as a tree would be. It is arched like a willow tree and there are mirrors inside so the children can see themselves when they go inside."

"It is right outside the centre and we wanted to create something that people could associate with the children's centre. Through consultation with parents and service users we came across the idea of the tree."

At the official unveiling there was a disco, face painting and stories to celebrate.

Musician hoping to hit festival high notes

A LICHFIELD musician will perform at a pop festival being put together by BBC Radio One. John Sambrook, performing under the name My Elektrik, will perform at the station's BBC Big Weekend.

The 26-year-old, created the track Let It Rain which was picked up by station DJs, including Fearnie Cotton and Scott Mills who played the track during their shows.

The musician said: "I'm excited. This is a great opportunity to get my work heard. I received an email from the BBC saying they liked the track and wanted to put it on the play list."

John has been offered a chance to play six songs at the festival in Cumbria on May 15. He is founder of independent record label Dusted Records. He wrote Let It Rain and produced it at his Lichfield studio.

Roadshow

John's main influence is dance act The Prodigy. He describes the musical style of Let It Rain as 'dubstep' - electronic dance music.

John will play alongside three vocalists, two guitar players, with someone on bass, drums and keyboards.

Radio One's Big Weekend is held every year, but each year a different town or city hosts the event. The festival is the biggest free ticketed music event in Europe.

It is a spin-off of Radio One's One Big Sunday, where every Sunday, during July and August, a different town would host the roadshow, usually next to a beach or in a large park.

The line-up includes the Foo Fighters, Lady Gaga, and The Strokes.

Chief Insp Carl Ratcliffe who is overseeing the new policing pilot scheme

Police links to social services in new drive

A PROJECT in Cannock is being used as a pilot for a new form of policing to stop "money-wasting duplication" across services.

It is part of a major shake-up in policing as the Staffordshire force battles to save £22 million over the next two years.

Under the initiative in the Blake Valley area of Hednesford, police officers, firefighters, social workers and other agency staff visiting a property will make wider investigations and pass on issues of concern to partner authorities.

It is the first initiative of its kind in Staffordshire and, if successful, will be rolled out to other areas.

Chief Insp Carl Ratcliffe, commander for the Cannock Chase division, said: "Although finances were the initial driver, this is about policing for the future."

He said police called to a house because a crime has been committed will also check whether the property has a fire alarm or pick up on any social services issue.

Excited

"Likewise, the person delivering meals-on-wheels might be told by the householder about an anti-social behaviour problem he or she is having, and pass that on to us."

"The initiative is about better communication. I'm excited about it because you can see the benefits, not just for local residents but for more effective policing."

The project area, including the communities of Chads Moor, West Chads Moor, Pye Green, West Hill and Green Heath, was selected because of the high demand it places on public services.

Meetings are under way involving police, fire, health, education, district and county council staff at director level, to get the scheme off the ground.

Chief Insp Ratcliffe added: "This is an opportunity to remove inefficiencies."

"It's thinking a little bit wider, aiming resources at the right place, and ensuring we get the most for every pound we spend."

Factory workers' pay dispute strike threat

Bi Composites in Green Lane

WORKERS at a Cannock factory are being ballotted over industrial action in a row over pay.

Staff at Bi Composites in Green Lane, which manufactures parts for the automotive industry, are threatening to walk out after they were refused a wage increase.

Staff have already taken a wage cut and reduction in hours to help the company through the recession, during which time union bosses say turnover has more than doubled.

Caroline Crolley, of the union Unite, which represents around 50 of the factory's 70 workers, said: "For the last three years the workforce have had a pay freeze."

"They have even taken a cut in their salaries of five per cent when the company was having difficulties."

"They have had short-time working over a year period. The company now in the last 12 months has increased its turnover from £4m to £8.5m."

"We have now approached them as the company is back on full time working with a good order book and is doing some overtime and some other orders were potentially on the horizon, for an increase to our members' pay and we are told they could not put anything on the table."

Appalling

"This isn't acceptable to our workforce who feel they have more than supported and co-operated with the company over the last three years and now they feel they are wronged by them treating them in such an appalling manner."

She added the union was now balloting members over whether they are prepared to take industrial action.

"Our members are going to go to these lengths because they now believe that after all the support that they have given, the company is now taking advantage of them and their good will and there comes a time when you have to say enough is enough and this is that time."

Karl Kalsi, managing director at Bi Composites, refused to comment.

Children enjoy new beginning

CHILDREN at a Cannock nursery have been learning about spring in this month's project, New Beginnings.

Youngsters from Happy Tots, at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, have been looking after tadpoles, caterpillars and frogs as well as planting seeds and vegetables to teach them about the changes that come with the new season.

Emma Haytree from the nursery said: "The children have absolutely loved it. They've even been going home and finding out about spring for themselves."

"They went out into the gardens and collected leaves and twigs so that they could make a new home for the frog. They look after the creatures really well."

The New Beginnings project includes all of the children at the nursery and each month they take a new theme to reflect the time of year.

Youngsters Mia Phillips, front, Jacob Lowbridge and Olivia Hackett have been learning about frogs and plants in their monthly project on Spring at Happy Tots Nursery

Taxpayers saddled with debt of £225,000

Re: Pye Green Community Hall
PRIOR to 2000, the hall was run by the district council which was then under Labour administration and was costing the rate payers of Cannock approaching £13,000 to subsidise each year.

So in 1999-2000 they intended to sell the loss making community centre to raise cash.

This is when the then newly formed Town Council stepped in, and after consulting the residents decided to purchase the hall, so a precept was raised to cover the costs. Within a few months the district council decided not to sell but to let the town council have it at a peppercorn rent, as long as the rates and upkeep was borne by the town council.

The hall is not owned by the residents of Hednesford. It was proposed by the Hednesford Town Council that when the Lightworks project was completed, we would have, at a very reasonable cost, an office in the town centre, which the residents wanted and could be used as an office by the clerks.

By the end of the eight years of the last administration - of which we were proud to be involved - the cost of running the Community Hall was almost at break-even, now it is losing the ratepayers of Hednesford in excess of 15,000 a year. The new extension is being forced through by the new Labour administration.

Of the 10 councillors on the town council, five live in the 'parish', two of which were not even democratically elected as they were co-opted. The other five do not even have to pay a penny in precept to Hednesford rates as they fall under other parishes. Is this fair? This extension will not increase the hall space by one iota but give the town councillors a smart and plush meeting room, office for the clerk/admin staff.

It cannot be right to burden the people of Hednesford with a debt of £225,000 over 20 years when everyone else is curbing their spending.

The original proposition put forward by the Finance committee to the council members was that we would get full funding for these improvements from external sources. This would not cost the Hednesford ratepayer a penny.

When this did not materialise they came up with the idea of match funding and only £45,000.00 has been achieved.

In hindsight, I am sure the proposal to purchase the West Cannock Fives would have been a far better and cost effective option, but was dismissed out of hand by the eight Labour councillors.

Serious problem going against any political or cultural considerations

I WRITE in reply to both LDT and Mr Mike Smith regarding the traffic problems in Hednesford Road Heath Hayes.

First of all we seem to agree that there is a problem otherwise there would be no debate on the matter. Mr Smith says there is no problem on parking and he only finds, on occasions, that parking on double yellow lines at the end of Lyndhurst Road is okay. This is a traffic offence.

He also states that Blue badge holders can legally park on double yellow lines. Wrong. I am a blue badge holder and do assure you that there are offences committed under the road traffic act such as causing an obstruction which are punishable. We cannot have people pleasing themselves on when or where they park if it is against the law.

LDT says there is no need for traffic calming measures in Hednesford Road then I ask: Why do we have so many residents in and around that area complaining to the parish council about this matter?

It is an agenda item again next month as it was at the April meeting so come along LDT and Mr Smith and state your case. The parish council, all parties, would wholeheartedly support any sound solution to this problem, putting it forward to the County Highways Department for consideration, as this is the section responsible for such matters.

If parking bays were in place along this road what would happen? I envisage that of the businesspeople along this road and/or their employees would take up these spaces for the day leaving disabled and customers to look elsewhere for a space to park which could be at one of the major shopping stores in the area - this being one of the reasons that has driven shoppers away from Hednesford, where they have parking bays down the High Street. My favoured option would be chicanes with a 20 mph speed limit from Five Ways Island to the Pentecostal Church island, not perfect I know, and would still not satisfy some people as parking would still have to be restricted along that route.

The blocking off of Hednesford Road at Five Ways Island thus making Hednesford Road one way, was just one idea put forward, not by any parish councillor, but rejected by the Council as a non-starter.

This was in my previous letter to indicate just one of many suggestions placed before us over a period of time.

I deem this to be a most serious problem going beyond any political, cultural or business considerations and pray to God that it is resolved before death or serious injury occurs.

Cannock & District Car Club collects for the Air Ambulance at Morrisons

Air Ambulance cash collected

ON behalf of the Midlands Air Ambulance charity, Cannock & District Car Club would like to thank the management of Morrisons Supermarket, Cannock, and its customers for their help and generosity at our recent annual charity collection day.

During the three and a half hours on the morning of Mothering Sunday we raised £531.08 which was welcomed by the Air Ambulance, since it now takes more than £6 million each year to run the service.

The Charity costs are only covered by voluntary support as they receive no state aid or National Lottery funding. This year the charity celebrates its 20th anniversary and now operate three helicopters out of the RAF Cosford in Shropshire, Strensham near the M5 in Worcestershire and Tatenhill Airfield in Staffordshire, covering the communities of Gloucestershire, Herefordshire, Shropshire, Staffordshire Worcestershire and the West Midlands, flying seven days a week, 365 days a year.

Further information on the charity can be found at www.midlandsairambulance.com

Thank you so much.

City needs living up

FURTHER to the item 'Planners See Red etc' (Lichfield & Burntwood Chronicle March 31).

Lichfield brightening up to attract more people, for at present not a lot of people want to visit Lichfield, except for the cathedral and possibly Dr Johnson's home. Good luck to Burchell Edwards and others who want to liven the place up, otherwise Lichfield will slide even further into a dull, uninteresting city.

Tragedy parents host summer ball

THE parents of a baby boy who died at 11 months old are hosting a summer ball in his memory.

Beverley Meller and ex-husband Greys Boot, of Chasetown, would have been celebrating their son Ryan's 16th birthday this September.

He was diagnosed with cerebral palsy, epilepsy, diabetes insipidus and blindness when he was born. Now his parents, along with Beverley's new partner, Dean Swift, want to give something back to the staff at Queens Hospital, Burton-on-Trent, where Ryan was treated for acute soliform meningitis before he died.

There are 200 tickets at £25 each available for Ryan's Charity Summer Ball at St Matthew's club, St Matthew's Road, Burntwood, on June 11.

Encourage

Having already secured the venue, DJ, live music acts, auctioneer and portrait photographer for free, they hope to raise money to buy equipment for the ward.

Businesses are being called upon to contribute to the auction and support the event.

Walsall FC and Birmingham City FC signed footballs and shirts and raffle prizes, including a £50 voucher for Salloways Jewellers, are up for grabs.

Mr Swift said: "We have already had around 50 people who want to buy tickets for the ball but we are eager to encourage even more guests to come along because the more support we get the better."

"As our first fundraising venture it has been hard work, but it has been something that we have all wanted to do for a while."

To buy a ticket or make a contribution, contact Dean on 07528 499755 or, Beverley at Bev's Hair and Beauty Salon, Burntwood, on 01543 302032.

Appeal is banking on Bertha

A BANK account has been set up to collect donations for a memorial to one of Lichfield's most eccentric characters.

Dozens of people have already signed a petition to support the tribute to Bertha Frankham.

And now people can help by donating a special account.

The appeal, run by Lichfield resident Lee Jones, is seeking to reach 1,000 names so organisers can then go ahead with plans to remember Mrs Frankham, who died in 1994.

She was often seen in the city with her dogs and a pram full of shopping.

She was thought to be in her 70s and lived in a caravan on waste ground off Eastern Avenue.

Donations can be made at HSBC to The Bertha Frankham Memorial Fund, sort code 40-28-18, account number 31825151.

Help plea by charity shop

A CHARITY shop in Lichfield is appealing for help after a decline in donations. The British Heart Foundation store in Market Street urgently needs items such as books, clothes, toys, bric-a-brac, shoes, CDs and DVDs.

It can also arrange a free collection of items for those who are unable to take them to the shop. To donate or find out more about collections call 01543 410969.

The boulder-strewn 'natural play area' for the under-fives at the park

'Boulders' play area falls on stony ground

IT HAD been closed for more than a year as part of a £4 million makeover of parks in Lichfield.

So expectations were high when the children's play area in the city centre's Beacon Park finally reopened after a nine-month delay. But many parents found little to shout about.

The traditional slide and roundabout had gone. In their place was a Flintstones-like "natural play area" of wood and boulders to encourage imaginative play.

A new cafe has been built beside the relocated toddler site.

Some parents were disappointed to find that "new" equipment – including a toy train and springy chickens – were in fact from the old play area.

Lichfield District Council says the under-fives area has reopened early to accommodate youngsters in the Easter holidays and more installations will be added.

Features such as the war memorial, bowling green, railings and fountain were tackled as well as a new cafe and pavilion.

Perfectly

The area was renovated as part of a Lottery-funded project to transform 100 acres of three parks, including the garden of remembrance, museum gardens, the Minster Pool and walk.

Children's nurse Hayley James, aged 38, of St Peter's Road, Burntwood, said there was little for daughter Charlotte, three.

"The new sandpits are nice but they're teeny – you can only get five children playing in them at a time," she said.

Mother-of-two Sophia Davies, 36, said: "The old equipment was perfectly good, so I'm not sure why they decided to spend the money, and some of this stuff isn't really suitable for toddlers.

"They like walking on the new boulders, but that area looks a bit bleak."

Mother-of-three Sarah Oldfield, of Beacon Gardens, Lichfield, said it was a lot to spend, but equipment did cost "a ridiculous amount."

Council chief executive Nina Dawes said a climbing frame, slide and willow maze would be added.

A busy summer ahead for ladies 18th annual celebration

PRESIDENT Sandy Hobbs opened the April meeting with a greeting to members present, apologies for absences and the singing of "Jerusalem".

Secretary Elaine Smith read the minutes of the March meeting which were duly signed and seconded.

Vice-treasurer Eva read the financial statement as the treasurer Rosemary was still on holiday in Australia.

Mrs Hobbs gave an account of the Eco/Fairtrade Day at St. John's Church on March 26 and thanked members Lyn and Moira for doing such a grand job on the WI's behalf.

The hall for this meeting was arranged with small tables for groups of four, and proceedings began with the serious business of the quiz which was devised and presented by Elaine.

It was good fun and there were varied answers and scores. After the refreshments, Diane and Sue gave out details of forthcoming events, including visits to the National Trust "Back to Backs" in Birmingham, Bridgemere Garden Centre and Dagfields Antique Centre in Nantwich, Ascot Ladies' Day at Moor Hall, Lichfield Heritage Centre and afternoon tea at Netherstowe House – a busy summer ahead.

The month's raffle was won by Maureen, and the competition was won by Mary, Anne and Sandy.

Mrs Hobbs closed the meeting and wished everyone a safe journey home and a happy Easter.

The next meeting, on May 4 will be the AGM and will be at the usual time, 7.30pm. at St. John's Church Hall, Heath Hayes. Visitors are always warmly welcomed.

CANNOCK &amp; DISTRICT LADIES PROBUS CLUB

CHAIRMAN Val Beale welcomed members and visitors to the 18th annual celebration of the Cannock and District Ladies Probud Club.

It took place at the Chase Golf Club, Pottal Pool, on Thursday April 7.

The chairman introduced representatives from four other Probud Clubs, namely Mrs Eva Eustace, chairman of Cannock Chase Ladies Probud Club and Mrs Pat Preece, Alan Pearson, chairman of Hednesford Probud Club and his wife Shirley, John Smith, chairman of Cannock and District Probud Club and his wife Maureen and Brian Lyons vice-chairman of Cannock Chase Probud Club and his wife Margaret.

Grace was said by Betty Howard-Evans. After an excellent meal Val proposed the loyal toast to the Queen.

The entertainment was given by David Bartley, a Black Country wordsmith, and the vote of thanks was given by Barbara Matthews.

Judge's moan after sex offender freed

Jason Gaunt

A JUDGE hit out at sentencing guidelines that stopped him from jailing a children's entertainer for sex offences against boys.

Judge Peter Moss said the maximum prison sentence he could have imposed on Jason Gaunt would have been around two years.

Instead, he was forced to hand down a three-year community order allowing the 22-year-old to walk free.

The judge hit out last week after a report described Gaunt as "manipulative" and posing a "significant risk of serious harm".

He told Gaunt, of Leander Close on the Walsall-Great Wyrley border: "I am effectively, by statute, deprived from passing a sentence that I know many would say you richly deserve."

Prison officer's son Gaunt, gained jobs at Kessingland Beach Park Resort in Suffolk in 2007 and 2008 and at Seawick Holiday Park in Clacton-on-Sea in 2009 so he could prey on "impressionable" young boys, Guildford Crown Court heard.

He used websites, including Facebook, to groom four children, one aged 11, and indulge in sex acts using a webcam.

Reduced

He admitted 19 charges involving boys under 16 and possessing 100 indecent images of children.

Judge Moss said as Gaunt had already served 121 days in custody, any prison sentence imposed would have been further reduced because of his guilty pleas.

MP joins survey into beauty sites

MORE than 90 volunteers, including Cannock MP Aiden Burley, are conducting surveys at more than 30 Staffordshire designated beauty sites, including ones in Cannock, Rugeley and Lichfield.

Visitor numbers to Areas of Natural Beauty, including Cannock Chase, will be recorded. The survey will help volunteers find out the ways people travel to, their reasons for visiting, the sites based.

The research begun in October and will continue until this October. Volunteers each give 12 days of their time to help question visitors to the sites.

Mr Burley said: "We're so lucky to be surrounded by such beautiful countryside and I wanted to take an active role to help maintain it. Becoming a member of the AONB is a great way to keep in the loop about its news and events, and I am looking forward to taking part in more activities to help keep it our jewel in the crown."

Emma Bearman, assistant AONB officer said: "We are so grateful to our volunteers for giving up their time to help with the survey."

Tuning up for festival

LICHFIELD'S real ale, jazz and blues festival will be held on June 23 to 26. Big bands, boogie woogie beats and a choice of more than 30 real ales will be on offer at the four-day event.

Organised by Lichfield Arts, bosses say it will feature some of the best and most original musicians on the British jazz and blues scene.

The big band sound of the Lichfield and Rugeley Jazz Orchestra will start the event on June 23 and will be followed by Walsall Jazz Orchestra. On Friday, music will be provided by Steve "Big Man" Clayton while on June 25, five bands will take to the stage.

The festival will be held at Lichfield Rugby Club in Tamworth Road.

the chronicle

Collection fit to eat

A WOMEN'S gym in Rugeley has donated more than 50 chocolate eggs to help give vulnerable children a happy Easter.

WOW! Fitness has donated the eggs to the Pathways Project charity, which supports women and their children who are the victims of domestic violence.

The eggs from the staff and members at the gym represent the biggest single collection by an organisation in the area.

Gym co-owner Joanna Rigby said: "We really are overwhelmed at the fantastic support for this very worthwhile cause. Over 50 eggs is a great achievement and will certainly put smiles on a lot of children's faces."

Dance group joy over new home

GROUPS using a popular Hednesford venue have managed to find a new home just weeks before its current base closes.

There were fears dance and exercise groups using the Aquarius Ballroom, Victoria Street, would not have a permanent venue to go to when it shuts at the end of next month.

But they now have arranged to use the Civic Rooms on a block booking basis. Groups such as the Thursday night ballroom group and zumba classes use rooms.

However, since it was announced that the Aquarius was being knocked down, they were worried they would have nowhere to go.

Mike Allsopp, who owns the lease on the ballroom, had originally spoken with Cannock Chase District Council to ask about being able to use the Civic Rooms in Beecroft Road, Cannock, on an exclusive basis.

However, the council said he would have to book all the sessions.

Mr Allsopp, who was worried it would cost more, has now been able to agree a system where between Tuesday and Sunday they have been able to book the rooms for a slightly reduced rate.

"We have booked this until the end of the year and then will do so again for next year," he said.

"Something had to be done for the people of Hednesford as there was nowhere else big enough for these groups to go."

"The deal we have made with the council is viable for transferring our events over to the civic ballrooms and we are looking forward to starting there in June."

Dance teacher Denise Roberts, who helps to run a Thursday night ballroom group said they were looking forward to using the new centre and they were relieved somewhere had been found.

Demolished

On the current Aquarius Ballroom site, a replacement community facility, being built as part of the Chase Gate development, would include a dance floor.

That development is not due to be completed until early 2013.

The Aquarius has to be demolished to allow the regeneration scheme for Hednesford town centre to go ahead.

For Mr Allsopp to be able to use this new centre, it would have to go out to tender.

No-one was available to comment from Cannock Chase District Council.

Survey into deer count on Chase

thechronicle

Popular organist performs

KEYBOARDIST Ryan Edwards will be the star performer at the Burntwood Music For All Group tonight (Thursday).

The 33-year-old has established himself as one of Europe's top performers on modern electronic organs and keyboards.

He will be in concert at The Memorial Institute Hall, Rugeley Road, Burntwood from 7.30pm.

Since his debut at National Electronic Organ Festival in Morecambe back in 1992, Edwards has gone on to become a regular and popular artist across the UK. His numbers range from Zampa to the sounds of the Brassed Off brass band through to big band favourites and even The Carpenters and Michael Jackson.

Tickets are £5 on the door. Further details from CMP Promotions 01530 274270.

COUNTRYSIDE rangers on Cannock Chase have been carrying out their own survey into deer numbers as the current nationwide census takes place.

The Chase is home to one of the largest herds of deer in the country with around 1,000 fallow and red deer living in the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The deer census has been carried out in partnership with the Forestry Commission to help maintain an important part of the Chase's eco-system.

County Councillor Mark Winnington, Cabinet Member for Environment and Assets said: "The census is not an exact science and will not provide a precise number of deer."

"However it will give a very good indication of whether numbers are increasing, reducing or stable."

The census takes note of the deer's type, gender and approximate age, while rangers keep in contact with each other to minimise double counting.

While a rare sight for visitors to Cannock Chase, there are around 800- to a thousand fallow deer and somewhere between 80 to a hundred red deer using the Chase as its habitat.

Councillor Winnington added: "The deer are a very welcome sight across the whole of the Chase, but it is important for numbers to remain stable if the herd is to stay healthy and viable."

The census will help monitor the main areas of concern that deer bring, such as food sources, road safety and crop damage.

Around 200 deer are involved in collisions on the road each year, and a higher population would lead to more collisions and casualties, especially if red deer species were to increase.

Deer can also raid neighbouring farmland and this problem would increase if numbers rose, as the deer would struggle to find food sources around the Chase.

The rangers tracked the deer from around 6am - the period when they are most actively feeding.

Ready for the wedding event are from left, Charley Wheeler (aged five), Georgia Pollard (four), Libby Sprague (five), Bradley Lloyd (five), Layla Weaver, (four), Finlay Hollingworth (five), Neve Osborne (five) and Luke Bayley, (five)

Patriotic pupils ready for big day

CHILDREN at a Cheslyn Hay school are getting into the Royal wedding spirit by holding their own event in the week of the big day.

Early Years Foundation children at Cheslyn Hay Primary in Saredon Road are having their own wedding on April 27 at St Mark's Church in Great Wyrley - two days before Prince William and Kate Middleton tie the knot at Westminster Abbey.

Teacher Claire Newens said: "We have our bride, groom, bridesmaids, page boys and parents who will be dressed in their finest."

Manufacturing firm bucks economic trend Upturn has backing of growing business

A CANNOCK manufacturing firm is backing the economic recovery after announcing its biggest ever investment in machinery.

After record breaking turnover figures, Keys Park based firm Laser Process has placed a £1m order for two new laser cutting systems. The Trumpf will increase capacity by 25 per cent.

Trading confidence at the firm was further boosted after it secured its largest ever single order in March for just over £100,000 worth of steel decking plates.

Managing director Dave Lindsey said: "The investment demonstrates the company's commitment to the economic upturn; we're backing that with £1m, the largest ever single investment in the firm.

"Business is going well with our strongest ever month in terms of turnover and the largest single order we've ever had."

The purchase is part of an ongoing company reinvestment policy to continually update machinery and provide the highest level of customer service.

Laser process is one of the top five firms in its field in the UK and employs 36 staff. Last year the firm celebrated its 20th anniversary.

Quality

Mr Lindsey said: "We have always invested in the latest technology so we can continue to offer the highest level of quality to customers, and we're continuing to do that."

The new laser cutting systems are being made to order and will be installed by the end of June.

Laser Process managing director Dave Lindsey: "Business is going well."

Bullseye for Army marksman Tom

A CANNOCK soldier is gunning for glory after his pinpoint accuracy scooped him a shooting award.

Captain Tom Williams, a reservist soldier with 210 Battery – part of 106 Regiment Royal Artillery based in Wolverhampton – topped more than 500 Territorial Army (TA) sharpshooters at the Corps Operational Shooting Competition. Held at Farnborough, the event involved firing the Army service rifle and pistol while carrying almost 20kg of kit.

Cpt Williams, aged 27, from Heath Hayes, said: "I'm really pleased that the team did so well."

When the results were tallied, Cpt Williams' team won trophies for three of the matches over the weekend and Cpt Williams was awarded the trophy for Best Officer and Best Overall Shot for the Royal Artillery.

Having won best overall shot, he then took part in the traditional chairing off the ranges.

Cpt Williams has served in the Army for five years, including a tour in Afghanistan, and his team has now qualified for the TA national championships at Bisley.

Sick boy's dad within sight of cycle target

A FATHER is almost halfway to a fundraising target for a bike ride from John O'Groats to Land's End to raise awareness of a rare condition which afflicts his son.

Craig Boulton, of Meadowbrook Road, Lichfield, will ride next month in aid of the Goldenhar Family Support Group. His son, Byron, was diagnosed with the congenital abnormality six weeks after he was born.

The condition left Byron with just one ear and a small tongue and jaw. He cannot hear without special aids and has had to undergo a tracheotomy to help him breathe.

Mr Boulton, aged 36, has already raised £700 of the £1,500 needed to take part in the event on May 8.

On April 30 his partner, Sarah Clift, will be holding a sale of handmade items, cakes and sweets and a raffle to boost the money already raised.

Sarah, aged 36, said: "Our son was diagnosed with the syndrome six weeks after he was born and has had numerous operations throughout his childhood and has still got a couple more in the future."

"My partner Craig and three other parents are doing the cycling while myself and our two children will be following in our vehicle for support."

Misplaced

"We are hoping to raise as much money and awareness for the Goldenhar Family Support Group. As it is so rare, funding is difficult."

The fundraiser on April 30 will be held at Boley Park Community Centre in Ryknild Street between 10.30am and 12.30pm.

Sarah, who also has a daughter Keir, aged six, with Craig, added: "We have already raised £700 and we want to now do as much as we can to get to the target."

"We are holding the coffee morning to raise a bit more awareness so hopefully by word of mouth we hope that we will get quite a lot of support from people."

Goldenhar Syndrome is a rare congenital abnormality. Children born with the condition are usually of normal intelligence and live a normal lifespan.

The condition varies in each child, but is usually affects one side of the body, often with abnormal, missing or misplaced ears.

Sufferers also tend to have breathing and feeding problems. The eyes, heart and lungs are sometimes affected.

Anyone wishing to donate can visit http://everclick.com/goldenhar\_jog21e\_sponsor\_cycle or call 07971 705983.

Thugs' kicks left men unconscious

Rescue Centre volunteer Harriet Dawson Derry with Albert the miniature pig

Abandoned pig found on Chase

A MINATURE pet pig has been given a new home after being found abandoned on Cannock Chase. The animal, believed to be a Kune Kune breed, was discovered last week.

Albert, as he has been named, has been handed into the British Wildlife Rescue Centre based at Amerton Farm in Stowe By Chartley, near Stafford.

Volunteer Abby Gower said: "The pig was just found, we think he was an abandoned pet. A member of the public was out walking her dogs and he just came out of a bush and followed her. We haven't got them wild in this country so he must be a pet."

"He is in a good condition and he wasn't too distressed, We don't think he is any older than one."

"We will now keep him here, he is the only pig at the moment, but he has settled in fine."

The centre takes in all British wildlife rescued or orphaned and treat them before returning them to the wild.

A PAIR of thugs who kicked two men unconscious in a fight outside a Cannock nightclub have been jailed.

One victim, John Lees, was left with a double fracture of the jaw. The other, Martin Bates, had a contusion to the brain following the attack outside the U-Bar on May 1 last year.

Grievous

The attackers, Lance Deakin and Francis Thomas, were jailed at Stafford Crown Court last week. Deakin, aged 22, of Lilae Avenue, and Thomas, aged 29, of Harrison Road, both Cannock, both admitted inflicting grievous bodily harm on Mr Lees.

Thomas also admitted assaulting Mr Bates causing him actual bodily harm and was jailed for a year, while Deakin got ten months.

Miss Jennifer Josephs, prosecuting, told the court the CCTV cameras filmed Thomas knocking Mr Lees to the ground and Deakin kicking him. As a result of the attacks, Mr Lees's jaw was fractured in two places.

Mr Bates had a brain scan which revealed bleeding.

Mr Stephen Bailey, defending Deakin, said there had been an incident inside the club.

He added Deakin, who works for an insulation firm, was a devoted family man.

Mr Harpreet Sandhu, father of Thomas, said the father-of-two whose partner is pregnant with his third child was "disgusted" at his behaviour.

Sentencing the men Judge Paul Glenn said: "It was quite horrific."

Stepping out to walk

The walk will last around 90 minutes and suitable clothing should be worn.

Trained volunteers will lead the walk. For details call Jane Matthews or Louise Cummings on 01543 674479.

Staff walk a mile for Sami's Smile

WORK colleagues of a woman who lost an eight-year battle with cancer have completed a 100-mile sponsored walk to raise funds for a charity set up in her memory.

Samantha Arrowsmith, aged 38, died of skin cancer on November 21 last year. She worked at Halsall Electrical, Cannock, from where boss Steve Halsall and employee Andy Joiner set off on the trek last Thursday (April 14).

Steve walked to Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, where Samantha was treated and finished on Monday (April 18) - the day of Samantha's birthday. Friends and workmates took it in turns to walk with him in shifts each day.

Mother-of-one Samantha, from Walton Heath, Bloxwich, was a senior accounts administrator at the firm.

The Walk a Mile for Sami's Smile event was held to raise money for the Oxford Radcliffe Charitable Fund, specifically for research into melanoma, as well as to raise awareness of the condition.

Senior business administrator Nicola Ball said staff wanted to do something in memory of Samantha's "fighting spirit, incomparable bravery and her utmost appreciation for the care she received at Oxford".

Anger as grassland set alight

CREWS spent more than three hours tackling deliberately started fires in Cannock.

Shrubbery was set alight off Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington, at 3.55pm on Monday, April 11. Crews then went to a blaze at Reservoir Road, Hedgesford, at 4.50pm.

Firefighters attended a third blaze off Stafford Road, Huntington just after 7pm and another at 7.55pm, at Hazel Slade Nature Reserve.

Area commander Stuart Cloughton said: "For every grass fire we deal with, it means that firefighters are not available to attend other incidents, some of which could be life threatening."

KFC serves up bid to extend opening hours

A CANNOCK fast food restaurant has applied for extended hours.

Kentucky Fried Chicken, on the Orbital Retail Centre in Voyager Drive, wants its licensing hours to be extended to allow it to serve hot food and drinks until 2am. It is currently open until 11pm.

Karen Sulway, environmental protection manager for Cannock Chase District Council confirmed the application has been received and would be under consultation until May 10.

"If there were objections then we would need to hold a hearing to decide," she said.

"We would have to get objections that are valid, and this could be from members of the public, but also from the responsible authorities, such as the police, the fire, trading standards, health and safety, the children's board and planning.

A KFC spokesman said the company was applying for the extended opening hours as those branches were particularly popular.

The new-look Cannock store only opened last summer, and has since attracted a lot of custom.

The spokesman added: "Our customers have told us that they'd like us to be open longer, so we're applying for permission to extend the opening hours to allow us to sell until 2am."

Behavioural Support teaching assistant Tracey Loasby inside the new sensory room at Hagley Park Sports College with pupils Dylan Welch (aged 11) and Nicole Sibley (15) in the background

New school room to stimulate the senses

A RUGELEY school has installed a sensory room which staff hope will boost pupils' confidence.

Hagley Park Sports College, in Burnthill Lane, has set up the room to support youngsters as part of a pilot scheme. It is the only secondary school in the county to sign up for the pilot.

Striking lighting and colourful toys have been installed to stimulate children's senses.

A school spokesman said: "We were extremely proud to welcome the positive support programme manager and founder Sharon Brown and trainer Louise Gough to formally open our sensory room. The opening ceremony was well attended and we were also delighted to show off our brand new sensory room to guests."

Poorer Chase pupils set for funding boost

POORER children across Cannock Chase are to receive £834,000 this year under the Government's new pupil premium.

The lump sum payment will go to the schools, allowing them to provide additional support.

The help includes one-to-one tuition and extra pastoral care. The money, which will be paid this month to cover the next year, was promised by both the Conservatives and Liberal Democrats before the General Election.

The premium will be worth £430-a-year for every pupil on free school meals. It will be £430 for every looked-after child, and £200 for every child who has a parent in the armed services.

In Cannock Chase, 1,950 children overall will benefit from an extra £834,000 and 11 children of members of the armed services will receive a further £2,200.

Ignored

The news was welcomed by Aidan Burley, MP for Cannock Chase.

He said: "The gap between the academic performance of children from deprived backgrounds and their peers is far too big and ignored for too long."

"The pupil premium will tackle this disparity head on, providing targeted funding for those who need it most. The Coalition government didn't create these problems but it is delivering a massive boost to the education of the most disadvantaged and vulnerable children.

"This is fantastic news for children in Cannock Chase."

The pupil premium was one of the flagship policies for schools in the Conservative's election manifesto.

The deprivation pupil premium will be allocated according to the number of pupils on free school meals based on the January 2010 schools census, although final pupil premium allocations for 2011-12 will be based on the updated January 2011 schools census.

Weeding first job for a tidy garden

Subjects for open planting include the California poppy (Eschscholzia), pictured above, while to encourage maximum flowering, buy a feed that is high in potassium such as Rose Plus or Miracle-Gro Slow Release Rose & Shrub Plant Food.

■ Words and pictures supplied by Scotts Miracle-Gro Company. Always read the label and use pesticides safely

As plants in the garden put on new leaf growth and spring bulbs, shrubs and fruit trees provide attractive blooms it's time to get your hands dirty and get stuck in to some real gardening.

Now that outdoor soil is becoming warmer you will notice that weed seeds are sprouting – a sure indication that it's time for action. Your winter hibernation is over.

PATHS & DRIVES

The milder weather will encourage the emergence of weeds in all areas of the garden, but they look much worse when they disfigure the look of gravel drives and pathways. You can treat any weeds now and prevent new seedlings from growing with one application of Pathclear Weedkiller or Pathclear Gun! Weedkiller (a ready to use formulation). The concentrate comes in ready-measured sachets and is more economical than the ready-mixed Gun!

These special path and patio weedkillers are designed not only to kill existing weeds but also to give long term control of new seedlings that emerge later. Pathclear Gun! contains glyphosate, a systemic weedkiller that gets deep down into the root system to kill off dandelions, docks, bindweed and the like. It also contains a residual weedkiller that continues to control seedling weeds for up to three months.

DECORATIVE GARDEN BORDERS

Weeds are the first job to be tackled if you are going to have a clean and tidy garden this spring. If they are left to grow unfettered they will swamp your flower border robbing the soil and the surrounding plants of available nutrients, moisture and space.

The quickest way to clear the weeds is to spray them off with Weedol Rootkill Plus or Fast Action Roundup RTU, taking care to only wet the weeds, not the surrounding plants. This will save hours of back-breaking work hand weeding and the removal of piles of unwanted growth.

Feeding established roses, shrubs and herbaceous perennials such as delphiniums, campanula and peony is an essential

TOPICAL TIP
If blackspot disease was a problem last year, spray roses now with a dual action systemic rose treatment such as RoseClear Ultra to protect the new foliage from infection.

job in spring. To encourage maximum flowering, buy a feed that is high in potassium such as Rose Plus or Miracle-Gro Slow Release Rose & Shrub Plant Food. Sprinkle one or two handfuls around each plant and use a hand trowel to work the granules into the top 3cm of soil.

If you have large clumps of delphiniums that have lost their flowering vigour, the best remedy is to divide the clump up into separate plants so each one has enough room to create a full root system that will support some beautiful large flowers. Dig up the clump and pull apart into smaller portions that have strong roots and shoots.

Once watered in, thoroughly spread a mulch layer of organic matter over the soil surface to hold in moisture and to deter weeds. For the best looking results spread a layer of Forest Bark chips from Levington to make a great decorative textured finish.

Tender plants such as dahlias need planting in garden borders so that new shoots emerge in May after the last frost is over. Dig planting holes at least 15cm deep, leaving a gap of around 60cm between plants. Dahlias are hungry and thirsty customers so prepare the soil well by digging in plenty of organic matter into the bottom of the planting hole and adding several handfuls of Miracle-Gro Slow Release Plant Food to the soil that you work between the swollen fingers of the tubers and up to normal ground level.

Sowing seeds of hardy annuals can be started out in garden soil as soon as temperatures are warm enough. Subjects for open planting include sweet peas, love-in-a-mist, cornflower, California poppy (Eschscholzia) pot marigold (calendula) poached egg plant (Limnathes) clarkia and godetia.

You can also buy a packet of mixed hardy annuals as wildflower mixtures – there's one to attract butterflies, one a meadow-land mix and another a fragrant mix.

Don't forget that nasturtiums make great ground cover or climbers.

The quickest way to clear the weeds is with Fast Action Round Up RTU

Cocaine dealing addict gets jail

A MAN from Great Wyrley who turned to drugs after appearing in a TV documentary about the death of his mother has been jailed for dealing in cocaine.

Police raided the home of Raymond Benton twice, Stafford Crown Court heard last week. On the first occasion, last July, police recovered 57g of the class-A drug and £2,670 in cash, together with £225 worth of cannabis.

Mr Ian Pinkney, prosecuting, said text messages on Benton's mobile phone suggested he had been dealing.

In March, when Benton was on bail, officers executed another search warrant at the house in Hall Lane.

Selling

This time the haul was 58g of cocaine, worth £2,280, cash totalling £675, scales, empty bags and some cannabis.

Benton, aged 41, confessed to police that he was selling drugs and that he was in debt.

He was jailed for a total of 51 months after admitting two charges of possessing cocaine with intent to supply and two of possessing cannabis.

Mr Tim Pole, defending, said Benton had a tragic childhood and was a cocaine addict.

The trigger were revelations in a TV documentary into his mother's death.

"It began a downward spiral," Mr Pole said.

Active association member Pc Kevin Lee picks the winning ticket this month

Lottery proves a winner

THE Rugeley lottery is going from strength to strength, as their last lucky ticket holder won £675.

The monthly Lotto draw took place last week, and organisers are delighted that almost 1,500 entrants took part.

The lottery is organised by the Rugeley Traders Association, and the draw takes place in a monthly event featuring DJ Duncan Edwards to entertain the crowds.

The prize depends on how many people enter the draw, and the money raised goes not only towards the prize, but local events such as street markets.

The lottery also has a new mascot who will soon be selling tickets around the town, and a competition has been launched to give it a name. The winning name will receive £50.

The competition closes on May 7. For an entry form, visit Brewery Street Shopping Arcade, Rugeley, or Three Wishes, in the Indoor Market. For more details call 07808254496.

Recreating what wartime was like

A SNAPSHOT of life during the Second World War will be the focus of a weekend of events at the Staffordshire Regiment Museum.

Being There - A World War 2 Weekend at the Museum will be held on May 7 and 8.

Battle re-enactments, weapon firing and field kitchen demonstrations will be among the attractions depicting wartime sights and sounds.

On both days, two live battles featuring more than 100 re-enactors in authentic period uniform and firing original weapons will be staged.

Before the battles, visitors will be able to enter the trench and walk among German troops.

All nationalities will have support troops assisting them from the military police, medical and signals branches.

These D Day battle reenactments will be accompanied by the firing of large and small guns, filling the air with the ear-splitting noise and smoke of battle.

Guns being used include the Thompson sub machine gun or Tommy gun, the Sten gun and four MG42s, known as "Hitler's buzz saw".

The re-enactors are all part of the World War 2 Living History Association Limited, the oldest society of its type in Europe, who have been involved in films such as Saving Private Ryan and television programmes.

Appeared

It will be the first time they have appeared at the museum, next to Whittington Barracks on the A51 between Lichfield and Tamworth.

Curator Sarah Elsom said: "It's going to be a spectacular event - noisy, interactive and exciting."

Strictly the best pick for awards

THE 16th annual Lichfield Chamber of Trade and Commerce awards celebrating excellence in business have been launched.

Twelve awards will be dished out at an awards ceremony at the Lichfield Garrick in July by broadcaster and star of Strictly Come Dancing John Sargeant. Voting forms are now being sent out to local businesses.

Richard Lewis, president of the Chamber of Trade and Commerce, said: "These awards are a great way to show your support and appreciation for your favourite local businesses."

Award categories

include best customer service, best new business, best cafe or restaurant, best pub, best arts attraction in Lichfield, best business supporting the community, best beauty salon, and shop assistant of the year.

Mr Sargeant will be at the Lichfield Garrick on July 5 at 7.30pm and will present the awards later in the evening.

Tickets for the awards ceremony will be available at the Garrick box office from May 1, costing £18.50. Call 01543 412121.

Voting forms can be found in local shops or online at www.city-peak.info

The Vauxhall Astra involved in the Blackhalve Lane smash

A soft-top Renault Megane was badly damaged

Car smashes through fence and into garden

A CAR ploughed through a garden fence and ended up just feet from a farmhouse after an accident on a busy country lane in South Staffordshire.

"It is a really busy lane and there have been lots of accidents along here. The scary thing is the car ended up around six feet from the window of the house. It has completely taken the fence down."

She added: "We had some really big concrete posts put in there around seven or eight years ago after something similar happened."

"The emergency services said to us if it wasn't for these concrete posts, the car would have come through into the house."

Blackhalve Lane was closed from its junction with Wood End Road to its junction with High Hill for just over an hour.

Police said the other cars involved were a Renault Megane and an Isuzu Trooper.

Fundraiser Mark sets £10,000 charity target

A FUNDRAISER from Lichfield is holding a charity gig in his latest bid to help raise money for NSPCC.

Mark Wallis, aged 45, has been joined by friends and colleagues over the past three years in a variety of challenges to raise money for the charity.

Mr Wallis, of Norwich Close, is now holding a charity gig featuring local band Blind Camber at Lichfield Rugby Club on May 21 to help push his fundraising total to more than £10,000.

He said: "We're just normal people who are trying to raise awareness for the NSPCC because they do a fantastic job."

"If we can put on a bit of entertainment for a night and help raise money to keep them going for a few days then that's the best we can do."

In 2008, Mr Wallis decided he needed to get fit and took up cycling, and around the same time there were stories in the press about child abuse.

Sponsor

He said: "I figured if I was going to cycle long distances I may as well get some people to sponsor me and raise some money for a good cause at the same time."

"I chose NSPCC because at the time there were some real horror stories in the press about the way some children in Britain were treated." Since 2008, friends and colleagues from PTS Plumbing in Aldridge, where he is branch manager, have joined him in walking 25 miles from Tamworth to Aldridge, climbing Mount Snowdon and cycling 75 miles around the Derbyshire Peak District.

The charity gig will also feature a raffle in which the prizes range from a weekend stay in a five-star hotel to a meal at the Fingerpost pub in Pelsall.

Tickets cost £2.50 and must be purchased in advance. Food and refreshments will be available.

For more information, or to donate a raffle prize, contact Mark, Ryan or Adam on 01922 456 390.

Opportunity to walk with creatures of the night

VISITORS to Worcestershire County Museum are invited to 'go batty' during a special walk next month.

Back by popular demand, the museum's popular Bat Walk will take place at the Hartlebury Castle-based attraction on May 13. Running as part of the national Museums at Night initiative, the evening stroll is aimed at visitors of all ages.

Beginning at 7pm with a short craft session for youngsters to make their own bat masks the night continues with a home-cooked meal in the museum cafe at 7.30pm. This will be followed by a talk about British bats and afterwards visitors will be led on a walk around the grounds where they will be able to use detection equipment to search out the bats.

Mark Wallis, aged 45, from Lichfield, Ryan Hardware, 21, from Burntwood and Adam Rochelle, 27, also of Lichfield during their Peak District charity cycling event

Early start invitation to hear dawn chorus

NATURE lovers are invited to tune in to the dawn chorus on one of a series of guided walks at nature reserves in Staffordshire next month.

A conservation charity is holding walks on four sites, including Doxey Marshes, a wetland nature reserve on the edge of Stafford on Sunday,

May 8, starting at 5.30am. Walkers can expect to see and hear a variety of bird species, including reed bunting, lapwing and sedge warbler. Places should be booked on 01889 880100 before May 6. Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is also hosting a walk at its Georges Hayes reserve near London, between Lichfield and Rugeley, on May 15.

Bird expert Andrew Fisher will help people identify birds. For more details and to book a place call Claire Studman on 01889 880100.

Other walks will take place at Cotton Dell in the Staffordshire Moorlands on Bank

Holiday Monday, May 2, followed by breakfast at Ye Old Star Inn, Cotton, and Parrot's Drumble Nature Reserve in Newcastle-under-Lyme on Saturday, May 21. Trust warden Scott Petrek said: "It might mean an early start, but it's worth every second."

Handout funds boost for community groups

Gallery kicks off

Shugborough collections assistant Gemma Roberts with a 1926 rugby boot

SHOE lovers are in for a treat at new hands-on family-friendly galleries installed in the Staffordshire County Museum, housed in the Servants' Quarters at Shugborough.

The museum team has been working with community groups, volunteers, schools and students from Staffordshire University to research and develop the galleries, which include Play, looking at aspects of childhood. There is also a clothes gallery which has been developed with the help of the museum's volunteers and design students from the uUniversity.

And Shoes focuses on Stafford and Stone's historic shoe trade and related industries.

COMMUNITY groups in Burntwood have secured extra funding thanks to grants from the Burntwood Community Chest. In total, 21 groups were successful in getting a share of the £2,000 fund, receiving up to £200 each.

Recipients include the St John Ambulance Radio Communication who will spend £200 on a new radio, while Burntwood St Matthew's Cricket Club were awarded £180 to hold coaching courses.

Other projects include gym equipment for toddlers, a new television for a women's refuge and speech therapy sessions for people recovering from strokes.

The groups received their cheques at a celebration evening in Chasetown.

The Burntwood Community Chest scheme is jointly funded by Lichfield District Council, Burntwood Town Council and Bromford Living.

City ready to enjoy day of St George's celebrations

ST GEORGE'S DAY is going to be celebrated in style in Lichfield. The city will be turning patriotic on Saturday to celebrate the patron saint's day. There will be a variety of free events and market stalls on Market Square and Market Street to mark the most traditional day in England.

On April 23 between 10am and 4pm, there will be the opportunity to watch English folk dancing, join in the Hunt the Dragon competition around the market stalls or meet Welephant, the mascot for Lichfield Fire Service and take a closer look at a fire engine and learn all about the crew's role.

In addition there will be storytelling theatre, face-painting and live music from various performers.

A variety of local organisations, including Shakespeare in the Park. The Lichfield Tourism team, will also be present and the Heritage Centre Coffee Shop in St Mary's Church, next to Market Square, will have a selection of traditional English Specials including bangers and mash and hot roast baps.

CSI: NY

Channel 5, 10.10pm

The discovery of a young woman's body slumped against piles of rubbish in an alleyway and with a needle hanging out of her arm makes some believe she is the tragic victim of a heroin overdose. Of course, nothing is ever as it seems in this show, and closer inspection reveals that someone else may have had a hand in administering the fatal drugs. Mac arrives on the scene and recognises the victim as Tessa James. They had crossed paths a year earlier, when she approached the detective in the street with unusual stories. Tessa's autopsy proves her death was set up to look like an accident, so Mac starts to wonder if her stories could have had some truth in them.

PERSPECTIVES: LOOKING FOR LOWRY

ITV1, 10.15pm

The South Bank Show is no more, but documentary lovers needn't worry - here's a new series to get your teeth into. Unlike its Melvyn Bragg-hosted predecessor, Perspectives won't focus only on the arts, but instead will feature a wide variety of subjects. Nevertheless, it kicks off with a focus on Laurence Stephen Lowry who is, without doubt, one of Britain's most famous painters. Ian McKellen hosts the programme, which takes a fresh look at Lowry through the eyes of those who knew him and by visiting some of the places he knew best.

The top property guide for Cannock, Penkridge, Heath Hayes Great Wyrley, Rugeley, Hednesford, Burntwood and Lichfield

The picturesque pool at Waterside, Abbots Bromley, will sustain trout

The poolside deck provides a distinguishing feature at the £1.1m property

A skylight gives this luxury bathroom a bright and airy feel

Waterside idyll going for £1.1m

If you've ever dreamt of the most luxurious modern living, surrounded by water and some of the UK's most attractive wildlife at the heart of an historic Staffordshire village, then look no further.

Waterside is just for you – a magnificent four/six bedroom home in a conservation area at Abbots Bromley.

This spectacular residence boasts separate accommodation above the detached double garage, so that teenage children or elderly parents can live with the family and still maintain a degree of independence.

Alternatively, this adaptable space could provide a superb self-contained office suite.

A unique property, designed and developed 11 years ago by the current owners, Waterside is on the market at a guide price of £1.1 million through the John German estate agency at its Stafford and Lichfield offices. It is without question one to view, in order to appreciate its many unusual features, including an imposing entrance from Mires Brook Lane with CCTV surveillance, impressive and secure electronic entrance gates and a long gravel driveway leading to a pedestrian bridge.

The present owners have taken great pride in their beautiful home, but with their children having now moved on, they have decided to sell because the property is too big for just the two of them.

They now intend spending much of their time travelling – exploring Africa and South America.

"We have enjoyed living at Waterside, particularly the lovely views across the pool and the abundance of wildlife, which includes resident ducks and visiting swans and geese," they say.

Ornamental

"Every year, on a small floating island covered in vegetation, we see a hatching of mallards and moorhens. It was a wonderful environment to raise our children who are now grown up."

The pool will sustain trout. One of the big attractions of living in Abbots Bromley is the excellent selection of private and state-run schools, whether in the village or nearby. These include Richard Clarke First School, Abbots Bromley Private Girls' School, Lichfield Cathedral School, Denstone College and Repton. The village dates to before the Norman Conquest and is famous for its annual Horn Dance, which takes place in the autumn.

The present owner, a property developer, knew just what he wanted when he decided to build a house surrounded on three sides by water, overflowing into the adjacent Mires Brook which forms the other part of the boundary.

The footbridge sweeps across from the driveway to the front entrance, where there is an impressive split-level reception hall, with steps leading down to the main ground floor living rooms which all have glazed doors, opening on to the outside deck and pool beyond.

In the owner's words: "This affords a relaxing and delightful combination of indoor and outdoor living". The lovely vista includes the charming St Nicholas Church.

The breakfast kitchen is superbly appointed to befit a property of this quality, and two sets of double doors lead to the comfortable family room and the separate formal dining room.

At the far end of the house there are a modern drawing room and a study with an excellent range of fitted furniture and doors leading to a side deck and an ornamental recessed pool. Also at this level there is a well appointed guest cloakroom and utility room.

Double doors lead from this modern drawing room at Waterside on to the deck and the pool area

The bedrooms are located on the first floor and all have roof lights offering glorious views of the pool and the church. The principal bedroom incorporates an exquisite en suite with a jacuzzi bath, separate shower/steam room and individual contemporary wash basins. A Jack and Jill en suite is accessed from bedrooms two and three and includes a shower, WC and hand basins.

There is also a delightful split-level family bathroom.

Mature

The second floor offers various options. At present, one room is utilised as a gym and the other presents itself as the perfect home cinema. The novelty here is that they could effortlessly be converted to bedrooms and there is a complementing wet room situated between them.

Outside, the large detached garage has a studio above that overlooks the pool and comes complete with its own kitchen and bathroom. This provides excellent accommodation and affords the option of further converting either part or all of the garage downstairs, subject to planning permission.

Alternatively, the owner of a prestigious car could use the garage to display their vehicle in all its glory – thanks to the large glazed screen that has been fitted to complement this.

In addition, there is a useful workshop and garden room, besides a variety of mature, picturesque trees. Features too numerous to mention in full at Waterside also include:

- Expensive real oak doors, floors, skirting boards and architraves
- Top of the range tiling
- Gas-fired condensing boiler
- A chimney breast in the drawing room that can take an open fire, if desired
- Illuminated water feature in the hall
- Small area beneath the hall which could be used to store wine
- Galleried landing with a part-vaulted ceiling and exposed steel circular columns and beams

This truly unique property must be viewed to be appreciated. For further details contact John German on 01785 236600 or 01543 419121

Insure that you have everything covered

Insurance is big business and it's vital that consumers have the best possible information before buying insurance.

In 2008, a total of £10.7 billion was spent on motor insurance and £8.8 billion on property insurance.

The Association of British Insurers has published tips and myths guide to help consumers make the right choices when taking out insurance.

Maggie Craig, the ABI's acting Director General, said: "In the current economic climate, it is even more important people are not under-insured or put off getting vital cover because they don't understand how insurance works."

"People with questions about their insurance should always talk to their insurer or an insurance broker to make sure they have the right level of cover for their needs."

Top Five Insurance Tips

1. TOP TIP: Disclosure is key. Whether it's previous medical problems or a recent speeding fine, full and early disclosure avoids any possible problems later. Holding back something that is relevant will be a false economy if it means your claim is later turned down. If in doubt, always tell your insurer.

2. Your home should be insured for its rebuilding cost, not its market value. Your buildings insurance sum insured must reflect the full rebuilding cost of your home, not its market value. The ABI has a rebuilding calculator which can help - <http://abi.bcis.co.uk/>

3. Home improvements should be reflected in the sum insured. The extra value from improvements such as house extensions, new kitchens, bathrooms should be included when renewing your home insurance as they will increase rebuilding cost and therefore the sum insured.

4. Update contents cover. Always keep a check on the value of contents, especially as

Sorting myths from the truths

MYTH: Your vehicle is worth what you paid for it, not what it costs to replace.

FACT: If your car is stolen or damaged beyond repair, the insurer will pay you what it costs to replace it with a similar model today, not what you paid for it, as most vehicles lose value over time.

MYTH: If your house suffers subsidence it will become uninsurable.

FACT: Subsidence (as well as landslip and heave) will usually be covered by buildings insurance. If after a claim you are having problems getting subsidence cover there are some schemes available that can cover properties with a history of subsidence. An insurance broker can help you find these.

MYTH: The European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) is a substitute for travel insurance.

FACT: While the EHIC entitles you to any necessary state-provided medical treatment it does not provide full NHS coverage whilst abroad or pay for emergency repatriation to the UK. You need travel insurance for these.

MYTH: Online insurance comparisons always return the best insurance option.

FACT: Make sure that the policy you buy covers you for what you need, don't choose on price alone and ensure you compare like-for-like. Also remember that not all insurers are on comparison sites and if you have specialist requirements, it may be more suitable to contact insurers directly.

MYTH: There is an 'Act of God' exclusion in insurance policies.

FACT: Insurance policies do not contain such an exclusion. It will set out what is insured and what the main exclusions are. If loss occurs from an event covered, then the insurer will pay out, in accordance with the policy terms and conditions.

a home may now contain several flat screen TVs, laptops and music players. If you get new expensive goods, ring your insurer to add it to your policy.

5. Life insurance is based on your health when you take the policy out, not on any subsequent changes. Unlike annual insurance policies, such as motor and household, life insurance is a long term contract. So as long as you answer all questions honestly and provide full and correct information at the start, your premiums and your cover, should stay the same as you get older, even if you fall ill.

The ABI is the voice of the UK's insurance, investment and long-term savings industry.

It has more than 300 members, which together account for around 90 per cent of premiums in the UK domestic market. The UK insurance industry is the third largest in the world and the largest in Europe, helping individuals and businesses protect themselves against the everyday risks they face.

It pays out more than £230 million per day in pension and life insurance benefits and over £50 million per day in general insurance claims.

The industry is an important contributor to the UK's economy: it manages investments of £1.5 trillion, more than 20 per cent of the UK's total net worth; employs more than 300,000 people in the UK alone; is the fourth highest contributor of corporation tax; and is a major exporter, with one-fifth of its net premium income coming from overseas business.

Gardening

The very colourful Prunus Cistena is a good companion plant for magnolias

Magnolia Yellow Lantern, pale yellow flowers

Mahonia nervosa is a low, ground cover plant with tinted leaves and yellow flowers

The colours of spring are blooming beautiful

AFTER a horrible winter, we are now experiencing a glorious spring with no sign of frost, which is perfect for magnolias.

I had bought myself a new one, called Yellow Lantern, which I had not really seen in flower. It looks absolutely perfect.

While yellow is not a usual colour for magnolias, this tree is covered all over with pale yellow blossoms, so it looks really spectacular.

And, to have a frost-free spring is a real bonus – especially when the flowers are looking so perfect.

I have quite a few magnolias in the garden – mainly pink or white – so we have had a real treat this year. First, there was the big magnolia cambellii, which was covered with blossom, and that was followed by this plant's daughter, Iolanthe.

It's an amazing plant, as it flowers right from when it's small, whereas we have to wait many years to see the blossom on cambellii. Iolanthe flowers are very big and, as this plant blooms so soon in the year, it is rare to see the flowers looking as perfect as they are this time.

The next ones to come are the Stellata types, which are smaller.

I have the usual white one, which has flowered for many a year, then there are several pink ones, which have the same shape of flower and are smaller than many. I think these would be the best choice for a small garden.

Magnolia Soulangiana is an old standby – a really reliable plant with white flowers and a touch of purple.

Then come the Little Girls, which mainly flower now, but then follow with a few flowers throughout the summer. Betty, Susan and Jane are all in my garden, so the magnolias are there for the rest of the year.

It is best to mix other plants with the magnolias, in case the frost kills the flowers. Good companion plants are some of the cherries – the little one called Glandulosa is fine, or a small Prunus Cistena, which has pinkish flowers set among purple foliage to make a pretty picture.

The evergreen Mahonia Nervosa is a cheerful soul, with coloured leaves and lovely yellow flowers at this time of year.

This one is a ground cover plant, and keeps low on the ground. Evergreen shrubs brighten up the garden and this year, the mahonias have survived when many evergreens are looking really battered.

Mahonia Appollo is looking really good right now, and Mahonia Smarag will follow shortly.

Agent scoops award at London ceremony

A Rugely-based estate agent was honoured at a prestigious awards ceremony recently.

C residential and C lettings picked up the plaudits at ESTAS, The Estate & Letting Agent Awards 2011.

The team received a silver award for sales and bronze for lettings in the West Midlands.

Staff were also recognised for their excellent customer service as voted for by clients during the course of last year.

The award was announced by Phil Spencer, presenter of Channel 4's Location, Location, Location, at a lavish luncheon and ceremony held at the Hilton, Park Lane, London, and attended by 500 of the UK's top estate and letting agents.

Awards

Phil Spencer says: "The ESTAS are the most important and valuable awards in our industry."

"An ESTA is not an easy accolade to pick up and to win one requires a lot of hard work, over a very long period of time."

Simon Brown, owner of the awards adds: "ESTA agents believe passionately in providing the highest quality customer service. They are prepared to go that extra mile, to take criticism as well as praise and to invest and develop their businesses accordingly."

The results of the competition were determined by research carried out among customers who were asked a series of questions about the service they had received from their agent.

More than 26,000 votes were received, making it the biggest consumer survey of its kind in the property industry.

Angi Cooney, managing director of C residential adds: "We are absolutely delighted to be

C residential and C lettings picked up silver for sales and bronze award for lettings in the West Midlands recognised again in these awards.

The sales and lettings teams have worked extremely hard over what has been a turbulent five years.

"We are thrilled to be nominated so highly in the area by our clients and are looking forward to entering the awards again next year."

The ESTAS are sponsored by ZOOPLA, the property search website. Director Nick Leeming says: "It is important that we understand what the public think of the service which we provide them with and that is what the ESTAs are all about."

"ESTA agents have a common desire to know how the public rate their businesses and develop and adapt accordingly. ZOOPLA shares that ethos and that's why we're delighted to be the headline sponsor for the ESTAS."

The national scheme is backed by the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS).

David Dalby, residential director at RICS, says: "This is the sixth year that RICS has been involved with the awards, which we support because the results are based solely on customer satisfaction rather than the opinions of a judging panel."

"To win an ESTA, a firm has to demonstrate a consistently high level of service and, to achieve this, they must ensure that staff follow those standards of efficiency, good communication and transparency that differentiate the exceptional agent from the ordinary one."

Try before you buy at Italian mill house

UNUSUAL viewing arrangements have been organised for a mill house with 10th century origins near Siena in Tuscany.

Worcestershire and Shropshire estate agent Phipps & Pritchard is marketing a lovingly restored house which is on the market for £835,000.

Prospective buyers are being offered the chance to enjoy a week-long break from May 27 in the countryside where the property is situated with further options for second or third viewings.

The estate known as 'Mulino di Sopra', owned by Sarah and Dominic Gothard, is within an hour's drive of the historical cities of Florence, San Gimignano and Monteriggioni plus the Arezzo with Marina di Grosseto beaches and two good golf courses, also within a 45 minute drive.

The break includes discounted accommodation at three various star hotels, a five-course lunch with local wines at a tavern which is owned by an Italian chef who trained at The Savoy in London and a wine tasting tour of the acclaimed Banfi vineyard nearby, can also be arranged.

The estate was in a dilapidated state of repair and required total renovation, following extensive restoration the exceptional character and appeal the house, which dates back to 976 AD, has been re-established.

It is set in a total area of 1.5 hectares with professionally landscaped grounds including a swimming pool and a host of original Tuscan features such as terracotta tiles, exposed beams and open fireplaces.

Accommodation includes a 39ft x 20ft bedroom with fireplace on the ground floor and designer bathroom, a second double bedroom (20ft x 20ft), a hallway and a store room.

The first floor includes a fully fitted

The Mulino di Sopra villa is located in a hilltop village, under two hours from Pisa and Rome airports kitchen/dining room with fireplace, spacious living room with second fireplace, bathroom and a hallway.

The upper level hallway leads to two large terraces from which there are good views of the swimming pool, gardens and across the valley.

A recent extension to the upper floor has added another double bedroom and an open-plan room, ideal for use as an office or games room.

On a separate lawn is a secluded 20ft x 20ft wooden studio/office with electricity, heating, air conditioning and a telephone connection. There is also a two-bedroomed guest house in the grounds.

The accommodation would readily convert to a seven bedroom home, including a self contained guest or rental apartment for which full planning consent has been obtained.

Situated just two km from the medieval

Tuscan village of Civitella Marittima, the house is approximately 1 hour 45 minutes drive from Pisa and Rome Fiumicino international airports.

Manager of the overseas property department Zoe Herbert says: "The idea is unusual, but eminently sensible and may even set a new trend. Prospective buyers wishing to take advantage of this opportunity can visit the property several times if they wish, while getting the feel of the surrounding area and all that it has to offer. They don't have to make a decision in haste and relax after taking all the relevant issues into consideration."

A detailed description of the property is available from Phipps & Pritchard, as is a good selection of photographs. Email zherbert@phippsandpritchard.co.uk or call 01562 822244 for further details.

Lovingly restored the villa retains many original features including exposed beams

The viewing opportunity aims to allow people to experience the area and the house

French fleet car aims to vanquish the Germans

PEUGEOT is coming out with all guns blazing in its battle for the fleet large-car stakes with the new 508.

It's stylish, well-kitted out and won't quite make you love the taxman but at least you would speak to him in the street.

To be fair, until now you wouldn't have necessarily thought of Peugeot for your company car but the 508 will no doubt change that and also the minds of the fleet buyers.

The 508 replaces Peugeot's 407 and 607 models which were decent large cars but never really broke into that valuable fleet market dominated by badge snobbery – drivers preferred a German badge rather than the French!

Peugeot is now trying to alter that. If the badge snobs actually look behind the "image" they will find something that those who think for themselves and don't worry about what other people think, is every bit as good if not better. It looks far more stylish too, as you would expect from the French.

There are two body styles in the well-equipped range, a Saloon and SW. And it's the SW that's the best looking: beautiful curve lines flow along the body down to a sweet rear end which hides loads of space. The SW is also expected to be the most popular retail car.

Added to the elegant design are powerful, economical and low CO2 engines and the debut of Peugeot's new e-HDi Stop & Start System technology. The modern interior design is both practical and comfortable and there are five trim levels – Access, SR, Active, Allure and GT.

On sale today are seven engines available: two petrol and five diesel.

The HDi 112 diesel engine is available in two versions, with either a five-speed manual gearbox or Peugeot's e-HDi Stop & Start System with a six-speed electronically controlled manual gearbox (EGC). The HDi Stop & Start System technology enables customers to reduce fuel consumption (up to 15 per cent in urban driving) and with the EGC gearbox it produces just 109 g/km of CO2 in the Saloon and 110 g/km in the SW version – and that's one reason company car drivers won't swear when they get their tax codes.

Inside, the cabin has an attractive two-dial instrument binnacle in a stylish centre console, with clear functions and switches – no need to set aside a couple of hours going through the handbook to find out the essentials. One minus is the electronic handbrake which appears in all but the basic models. Sorry, but they are not intuitive to use and are awkward.

Standard equipment is good, even on the entry-level model which at £18,150 is well priced. With the top model at £28,750 comes a feast of gadgets and gizmos which are not just luxurious but in some cases useful.

There is plenty of space for driver and passengers in terms of head, leg and arm room and in the SW with the panoramic sunroof you feel as if you are in a gorgeous large bubble. There's plenty of storage space in both saloon and SW and in the luggage areas.

The seat-folding of the SW is easy to use and getting the luggage cover to fold is the easiest – slap it and it retreats! Great if you ever need to get rid of a bit of stress.

Another French firm may have Va Va Voom but Peugeot's lion makes you purr away the miles.

A large black car, possibly a Range Rover, is shown in a car lot. The car is parked on a paved surface, and other vehicles are visible in the background. The text is overlaid on the image in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font with a black outline. The text is arranged in four lines, with the first line being the largest and the subsequent lines being slightly smaller. The text is positioned in the upper half of the image, with the car's hood and roof visible behind it. The overall tone is professional and promotional.

Saab is getting the customers motoring with finance deals

Saab's finance schemes start from £289 a month

SAAB Great Britain is celebrating the arrival of spring by offering the most comprehensive and competitive range of customer finance packages it has ever devised.

Available across its core product range are: competitive and affordable Personal Contract Purchase (PCP) schemes; contract hire agreements including lower monthly rentals; zero per cent interest and deposit terms; and loyal and new customer offers with a free servicing package.

Benchmarked against key competitors, these ultra-competitive packages are offered across the Saab dealer network for a limited period. The offer will end on July 4.

Improving residual values have enabled Saab Great Britain to offer highly competitive and affordable monthly payments for its PCP scheme. A Saab 1.9-litre 9-3 twin turbo-diesel Saloon with 160hp and just 119g/km CO2 emissions is now available for just £299 per month. PCP customers are also able to take advantage of a special three-year servicing plan for £399. The Contract Hire Plan is open to business and private users.

Improved

Monthly rental costs are reduced for all models by up to six per cent, while most standard specifications are improved. Prices start from £289 per month for a Saab 1.9-litre 9-3X twin turbo diesel SportWagon and £299 for a Saab 2.0-litre 9-5 T1D Vector SE.

Deposit-free, with zero per cent interest purchase terms are available for all regular Saab models during the qualifying period. Payments can be extended from 36 to 60 months by agreement with the dealer.

Existing Saab customers can claim price reductions of up to £3,000 by purchasing another new Saab, while those exchanging competitor products are rewarded by a reduction of up to £2,500. Both offers include free servicing for three years, worth approximately £1,000.

"Renewed confidence in the Saab brand and improving residual values have enabled us to sharpen our customer finance offers," says Craig Gentleman, Saab GB general manager, sales. "We now have the widest and most competitive range of finance products we have ever offered."

Reward for Tower of strength

TOWER FC under-12 footballers got an exclusive tour of a Cannock firm to celebrate winning the league.

The team, who are sponsored by Finning, the UK's main provider of Caterpillar equipment, got to explore the facility. Staff introduced the youngsters to the company's range of work on April 11 to show them the career opportunities available for their future.

The team also saw where the machines were serviced and repaired before jumping on board one of the large excavators produced by Caterpillar.

Scott Thompson, who manages the team alongside Ronnie Roberts, said: "This season has seen Tower FC reach new heights.

"Being sponsored by one of the largest local companies was a massive boost and everyone involved within Tower FC were very proud to gain the support of such a well respected international company within our community."

Before the tour the Tower boys presented a framed team shirt to Finning general manager Tim Ballard to thank him for the sponsorship. Tower have had their most successful season ever after being crowned Division 3 Champions, of the Walsall Junior Youth League, with two games left to play, after remaining unbeaten all season.

After knocking out teams from higher divisions in every round to reach the final, Tower completed the double by beating Brewdow Juniors from Division 1, on penalties in the Ron Smith cup final, in front of more than 100 supporters.

Sinead scores but then sent off

BEDWORTH UNITED 0 CHASETOWN LADIES 5

THIS was an incredible performance by Chasetown against high flying Bedworth in the West Midlands Women's Regional League (North).

Sinead Treanor opened the scoring in the 5th minute as Charlotte Bull put the Bedworth defence under pressure.

The ball broke to a Bedworth player on the touchline.

Treanor chased her down and nicked the ball. She then turned the centre half inside out and stuck a wonderful shot into the far top corner of the net from 20 yards.

But 20 minutes later Chasetown were reduced to 10 players when Treanor was sent off for a second bookable offence.

The response from the whole team was amazing as attack after attack was dealt with and Bull was terrorising the Bedworth defence.

Just before half time Chasetown's nerves were eased as a brilliant through ball from Jodie Kinsey was latched onto by Bull to score.

Blocked

She raced clear of the defence with 30 yards to run, bore down on the goalkeeper and calmly slotted the ball into the corner of the net.

Jade Arber made it 3-0 in the second half after Dane Wright's effort was blocked.

Arber then supplied the cross for Bull to get a fourth.

The rout was complete in the 88th minute, when Arber, who had been treated for cramp a few minutes earlier chased a lost cause.

The defender hit her back pass a bit short to the keeper and Jade sprinted on to pinch the ball, round the keeper and simple tap in for 5-0.

Hazel starts the scoring

LICHFIELD DIAMONDS LADIES 4 WEDNESFIELD TOWN LFC 2

IT took Diamonds 25 minutes to get to grips with the visitors' offside game in this West Midlands Women's Premier League game but once they sussed it, the chances began to come.

Nicky Hazel opened the scoring. Minutes later it was 2-0 as Emma Dagley headed home a Meg Morrish corner.

In goal Jo Sheerin pushed two long range efforts over the bar as Diamonds' defence limited Town to shooting from distance. Shannon Edwards made it 3-0 in the second half with a clever turn outside the box and a chip that caught the keeper off her line.

With 14 minutes left Wednesfield pulled a couple of goals back before Hazel rounded the keeper to add a fourth.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

LICHFIELD league club Chase Athletic has continued its season of success.

After the Under 10s and Under 13s won their respective leagues, the Under 12s juniors followed suit.

They beat closest rivals Norton Canes away 3-0 thanks to goals from Joe Hartshorne and Connell Jevons (2).

They ended their league season with a 4-1 win at Sutton, courtesy of Kai Lyeott (2), Jordan Gittings and top scorer Hartshorne.

They could still win the double as they have a shield final to come on May 8.

Another side with hopes of the double are the Under 11s juniors. Top of Division One, they beat Castle Vale 2-1 to lift the shield. Ben Crutchley hit the winner from the spot after Dominic Bowman had given them the lead.

The Under 10s, however, failed in their quest for the double. Falling behind to a goal from the kick off against Lichfield round table in the cup final and going down 2-0.

Club coach Steve Taylor said: "We are happy with the success of the club this year but the overall ethos is progression and development."

STAFFORDSHIRE U15S 1 AFC CANNOCK 3

Cannock took the honours in the quarter final of the Lichfield and District League Shield. The visitors took the lead in the opening minute, before pressing their height advantage to bag two further goals from set pieces to lead 3-0 at half time. Rangers kept their resolve against the league title chasers and staged a spirited display in the second half to claim a consolation goal.

BURNTWOOD DRAGONS U-11 3 BEACON COLTS 2

Needing to win their last two games to push them towards the middle of a strong division 1 league, Burntwood started the game the brightest and soon took the lead through Oli Price. A strong run from striker Liam Latham extended Dragons

The winners... Chasetown Ladies under 17 celebrate claiming the Staffordshire County League Cup

Early set-back but then cup glory

CHASETOWN LADIES U17 3 PENKRIDGE LADIES U17 1

THIS was a classic final played by two great footballing teams who both played to win right up to the final whistle of the Staffordshire County Girls League's Cup Final.

Penkridge had the best of the opening chances and some good pressure lead to a Chasetown defensive mix up, which they punished with a well taken goal beating the keeper at the far post.

Chasetown came back five minutes later with their own spell of pressure and Loren Evans was quickly on to a loose ball and rifled in the equaliser into the top far corner from 20 yards.

Second half was just as frantic with both teams giving their all and with five minutes left and extra time looming Sophie Wilding laid on a superb pass through the middle for Kelly Jarvis to run on to and coolly push it past the keeper into the bottom corner.

Two minutes later a mirror image move saw Jarvis do exactly the same

However, Dragons dominated the majority of the game with goals either side of the break from Nathan Hodges. The second especially deserved after Curtis Smallman's fantastic run through midfield set him up. A fantastic all round team performance with Tom Price winning man of the match.

BURNTWOOD DRAGONS U-14 REDS 0 CHASE SPARTANS 1

Although Dragons had most of the initial play they soon became frustrated trying to break down a more physical Spartans side and following an important midweek tie looked slightly jaded.

So much so, that the majority of the half was then played in Burntwood's half and soon saw Chase taking the lead. Dragons continued to battle hard and took control of the majority of the second half, with good chances for Oli Tombs, Nathan Hodges, Curtis Smallman and Billy Fisher. But luck was not on their side and the equaliser never came. Kieron Jones earned man of the match.

UDLEY UTD GIRLS 0 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS 0

A depleted Diamonds side put in a hard working performance to come away with a point in this Central Warwickshire Girls U16 Premier League game. Dannie Jones and Stevie Kneller were excellent at the back putting in some well timed tackles and when the defence was breached Diamonds' keeper Sophie White made several good saves.

Plea for players

BRERETON Town Under 10s have just finished a superb season at under 10s, where they finished second in the league, missing out top spot by just one point.

The DHL Cannock sponsored team are looking for players to add to their squad.

They must be currently in year 5 at school and ready for the 11-a-side next season.

Club makes right moves to take titles

THE most successful season in the history of Lichfield Chess Club has culminated with the club achieving the rare feat of winning the two premier West Midlands league titles.

Lichfield has retained the Division 1 championship of the Wolverhampton League and for good measure has added the Birmingham League Division 1 title which had eluded the club for many years.

Both titles have been clinched in the last few days and now the club is seeking further honours with the Birmingham Division 3 and Division 5 teams both in championship play-off deciders. Both matches will be played at Boldmere St Michael's on Wednesday, April 27, the Division 3 match against Redditch and the Division 5 match against Sutton Coldfield.

Advantage

Lichfield's 11 teams, competing in four leagues, have also won the Derby League's Division Three title and the Birmingham League's Terrill Cup. The latter victory represented an astonishing triumph for Lichfield's third division team which despatched South Birmingham's Division 1 team by 6pts to 3.5pts.

Lichfield needed less than half its handicap advantage to win. The club is also in two Staffordshire County cup finals.

Club secretary David Short said that despite its competition successes, Lichfield were far from being elitist.

The club welcomes players of all ages from five upwards and of all levels of ability," he said. "For retired people chess offers an ideal opportunity to keep the brain active and to extend social contacts. For youngsters, chess is noted for its ability to improve concentration levels and membership is a very useful addition to any teenager's CV" he said.

The playing season comes to an end next Thursday with a Lightning 10 seconds per move tournament in the Guildhall and the close season will continue until the beginning of September.

Marathon reaches its 1,300-runner target

THE inaugural Salts Techstep Lichfield Half Marathon on May 1 is now full with entries being stopped once the 1,300-runner limit had been reached last week.

Race secretary Paul Griffin, of organisers KP Events, Lichfield, said: "It's fantastic that the event is full. Now we need a good day weatherwise and for the people of the city and surrounding areas to come to Stowe Field to see the finish at around 11.30am and also for people to come out en route in Whittington and Fradley too when the runners pass through."

Title winning Chase Athletic Under 12s

BLACKFORDS Angling Club match held on Leacroft Pool was won by Micky Millgate, who included a cracking bream of 6lb 12oz in his overall winning weight of 71lb 5oz.

Colin Talbot was second with 10lb 8oz and Steve McQueen third with 7lb 2oz.

Feeder fished worm and maggot accounted for most of the fish caught.

On other Blackfords waters, anglers using lowworms have been catching some nice fish. Also try Marukyu ground bait and pellets as these have been very successful recently. Fisherwick Lakes, near Lichfield, is still enjoying good form with John Jones catching a 22lb mirror carp and his son Jamie landing an 18lb carp.

Jamie Nicol had a 20lb one and we have heard of several upper doubles also being caught, all on zig rigs.

The zig rig is basically a way of fishing a normally buoyant bait, but at a depth between the lake bed and the surface.

For anglers old enough to remember the art of fishing ledgered floating crust, it's a similar method - you just pull it down under the surface to a pre-determined depth! It is well worth a try!

ANGLING - sponsored by Archline Angling

The recent Sunday open match was won by Trev Wilkinson on peg 26 with 68lb of carp and bream, back up weights were all good with many over 30lbs.

The trout lake continues to fish well with Rainbow and Blue Trout being caught to 3lbs.

Hamstall Fishery at Hamstall Ridware have recently introduced 2000 stock fish into there pools, lots of carp up to 2lbs which will provide good sport for all. The specimen pool already has a good stock of carp to 25lb. Refreshments and food are available on site and under 15s must be accompanied by an adult.

Anyone interested in fishing the venue should contact Eddie on 07971 935771

Tickets for Blackfords new season should be available in a week's time.

Fishery owners, if you would like a mention, please contact us and to all you coarse, game and sea anglers out there, if you have an up-to-date "fishy story" to report please contact us with details and a picture and we will attempt to include it for you.

Car club's Neale brothers enjoy success

A NUMBER of rally crews from Cannock & District Car Club made their way to the Nuneaton venue of MIRA on Saturday for the Quinton MC (Birmingham) Horiba D'Isis Stages.

With eight stages planned, covering more than 60 competitive miles, the crews were in for a demanding day in this round of three association championships.

Leading the Cannock crews were Stafford's Ron Aiken and his co-driver Brian Neale, of Heath Hayes, in their Mainline Haulage backed Mk1 Ford Escort running at car 5.

Apart from a couple of small 'wrong slots', which were corrected almost immediately, and an exhaust problem after a heavy landing on the bridge section of the venue, they had an otherwise trouble free event finishing 7th overall and 7th in class D.

This was good result for such an 'old' but popular car that was up against much more powerful and lighter cars.

Rapid

One of which, the Darrian T90 GTR of John Indri and John Harland won the event.

At number 8, Ade Camp, of Wolverhampton, was co-driving for his usual driver Andy Corner in their rapid 1900cc Peugeot 205. Problems on stages six and eight prevented them from getting the expected good result and they finished 49th overall, 19th in class B.

Team "Tom Tom", Wolverhampton driver Tom 'AZ' Aleksandrovich and Walsall co-driver Tom Bishop in their 1600cc Peugeot 205GTI ran at 57 and finished a creditable 36th overall, 5th in class B.

This was one place better than Kevin Harbour, from Doveridge in Derbyshire, & Stoke member Dave Tortoiseshell in another Peugeot 205 GTI who finished 37th overall & 6th in class B. Birmingham's Kevin Robinson, co-driver for Julian Barnett, Subaru Impreza N15 ran in class D, finishing 40th overall, 15th in class.

Burntwood's Dave Stanley and John Bradley, from Norton Canes, in their 1600cc Citroen Saxo ran at car 78 to finish 9th in class B, 47th overall.

The best class result for the club members came from Heath Hayes's Chris Neale, Brian's brother, who was co-driving for Dan Corner in yet another Peugeot 1600cc 205.

Broken

They only secured a place on the entry list two days before the event, as car 85, but were resceded as car 23 on the road.

Despite their event almost ending prematurely, the last two stages were run on a knife-edge due to excessive oil consumption - 4 litres used in 14 miles due to a broken piston ring - they finished 15th overall and 1st in class B.

Chris said the event took years of him as he had not been in a Peugeot competitively since 1999.

On Easter Saturday, the club are running their first event of the year - an Autotest at the Curborough sprint circuit, near Lichfield. The public are welcome to come and watch as members attempt the slalom event. Full details can be found on the club website, www.cdcc.org.uk

The club meet every Wednesday from 9pm at The Five Ways pub, Heath Hayes, and prospective new members are always made welcome.

Bowlers start the season on high

BEACON 3RDS 66 ALL OUT CANNOCK 3RDS 67-1. CANNOCK WON BY 9 WKTS
CANNOCK travelled to Beacon for their first game of the season and came away with an emphatic nine wicket victory.

After winning the toss Cannock decided to field on what was turning out to be the warmest opening day of the season for a number of years.

Despite looking to score at every opportunity, the Beacon openers could not manage to get the run rate much above two an over thanks to some accurate bowling by Cannock's seam attack.

Ant Wood had one of the openers caught at gully the score had reached just 38 after 19 overs.

Soon after, Cannock turned to spin when Dan Wood was introduced into the attack and it was not long before the wickets began to fall quickly.

Reply

Two wickets in two balls for DanWood started the steady procession of Beacon batsmen back to the pavilion.

The final Beacon wicket fell with the score on 66 off just 33 overs with Ant Wood finishing with 4 for 11 and Dan Wood 6 for 11.

Cannock's reply started steadily and the early wicket of Dave Chapman for just four gave the Beacon attack a glimmer of hope.

But an unbeaten half century stand by Aaron Wilkes, 31 not out, and Paul Martin, 25 not out, saw Cannock reach their target after just 13 overs to give them 20 points and a winning start to the season.

Season ends on high as premier status retained

NEWLY promoted Cannock Ladies 1st team went into their first season of the National Premier Division with hope rather than expectation and surprised everyone with a great start playing against the best the country has to offer.

Victory over Reading and holding champions Leicester were two great moments in the club's history as the team took to their new surroundings with relative ease.

Unfortunately, but seemingly more realistically, as the season wore on results became harder to find and the fight for survival went all the way to the last game of season.

The fight had seemed beyond them, however, a 3-1 victory over Birmingham University and Olton losing 1-0 to Clifton meant that the 1sts had maintained their league status for a second season.

Jubilation for all involved within the team and the club, the season was a great one for all.

Massive

The players' player of the season was awarded to Laura Johns, who has excelled in the country's best division, and the player of the season was awarded to Megan Byas, who has performed admirably all season, showing experience beyond her young years.

A massive well done must go to Coach Matt Taylor for another hugely successful year and also to retiring captain Charlie Riley, who played her part in a massive achievement.

The success of the 1st team was closely followed by the 2nd team, who after years of falling at the final hurdle, finally won promotion after finishing champions of their league. A season which saw only one defeat and only four goals conceded compared to the massive 84 scored in an oppositions net meant it was finally time to celebrate.

The hugely successful season saw Charlie Robinson pick up player's player of the season after her 100 per cent commitment went a long way to her team's promotion.

Louise Morely-Humphrey picked up player of the season after scoring more than 30 goals to help steam roller her team into the next division.

A new set of players and a new young coach in Alex Hill saw the 3rd team struggle in the early stages of the season.

Injury to captain Kate Richards before the start of the campaign also made things look bleak.

The first two games brought two 5-1 defeats as a long, hard season loomed.

Such was the drive, commitment, dedication and trust that the players showed in each other and their coach, success was sure to follow but nobody expected such a massive turn-around.

In mid-February the team lay in 9th place and seven points adrift of their nearest rivals however, a huge turn in fortune lay ahead as the team began to put results together and got it right in both attack and defence.

This resulted in seven wins in the final seven games. This included five clean sheets as Cannock climbed the league to finish in an impressive 6th.

Players' player was awarded to Jess Jocketts, who despite her age showed character and quality of a player much older.

Sarah Hitchens received player of the season for her faultless displays at the back as she progressed so profoundly throughout a great season for both her and the team.

Awarded

Cannock Ladies 4th string, who after a poor start and a lack of consistency across all areas, finished an impressive 5th place after promotion the year before.

A massive part of this turn-around was thanks to captains Jade Rowe and Chantelle Eccleshall, who took over the team half-way through the season and only suffered two defeats in their reign.

Sophie Jones was awarded player of the season as she enjoyed a great season in defence, as did Hannah Inglis who was awarded players' player.

Cannock Ladies 5th team enjoyed another good year as captain Lydia Gallagher and her side battled well against teams who were mainly older than them.

In a year of many highs, Libby Henderson was awarded players' player of the year and goalkeeper Keeley Read was awarded player of the season for her constant efforts and communication out from the backline.

Nicola Morgan-Fletcher proved a breath of fresh air to Cannock Ladies 6th team as she was awarded player of the season in her first year back in the sport after many years away.

Charlotte Bellamy was awarded players' player after another season of hard work, dedication and commitment to the Cannock cause as the 6th team improved on last years performance and finished a credible 7th place.

The club are hosting a royal wedding funday on april 29 at chase park.

It is designed to allow anyone aged between 10-14 of either gender to come down between 3pm and 5pm and play hockey free of charge. Equipment will be provided. Anyone interested just come down. For more info go www.cannock-ladieshockeyclub.co.uk

A TALENTED young speedway rider is hoping to clean up at home and abroad with the help of Lichfield firm Tippers Tool Hire.

Ashley Morris recorded his first maximum score in the sport on Tuesday, rattling up five consecutive wins to top the scorechart with 15 points as the Dudley Heathens beat Buxton 53-37.

The busy Morris also doubles up with Premier League side Edinburgh and is now venturing even further afield.

He has been nominated for the European under-19 individual championships and will contest a qualifying round in Gustrów, Germany next month. Morris will also be in the British side contesting the under-19 team championship in Sweden.

Straight

And his stable of bikes will be spick and span after the firm, based on Europa Way, gave him £2,500 worth of steam clean and jet wash equipment.

"I will be so busy in between matches," said 16-year-old Morris. "This cleans the bikes so much more quickly and makes it much easier. It's a big benefit."

"We said what we needed and they came up with it straight away, which was great," added the former British under-15 champion.

"I'll be riding in Edinburgh on May 6 and then flying out in the early hours to Germany. I'm the only Brit. I'll do my best and hopefully my best will be good enough for a qualifying place."

Ten-man Scholars endure painful six of the best as defence goes missing

CHASETOWN 2 WORKSOP TOWN 6

AN ACTION-packed goal-fest was served up at the Scholars Ground, but sadly it all went wrong for Chasetown on the night as they lost out 6-2 to Worksop Town.

Tuesday's match was reasonably quiet until the end of the first half when the Tigers took the lead, but in the second period the action exploded with a sending-off for Matty Cohen and three goals in the space of four minutes as the Scholars' play-off hopes were dealt a major blow.

Chasetown were on the attack right from the kick-off with Ramone Stephens crossing from the right to allow Ben Jevons to volley, but the ball was gathered by Tigers keeper Jon Kennedy.

Luke Shiels deflected Danny Smith's fifth-minute shot away for a corner before Darren Acton saw his first action in the Scholars goal to pluck the ball from the feet of Shiels as he cut in from the left.

Chasetown continued to enjoy the better of the first half action with Smith leading the attack. A period of good passing play in the 19th minute saw Jevons break through only to be halted by the offside flag.

Five minutes later Jevons was looking to tap in Smith's shot, but keeper Kennedy got there first.

Player-manager Martin McIntosh headed wide from a Tigers corner in the 27th minute before a free kick from the left from Chris Bettney flew straight to Acton after Chris Slater had departed injured and was replaced by Cohen.

Pinball

Worksop began to fight their way back in the closing minutes of the half, Ben Tomlinson shooting wide from a Bettney long ball. In the final minute of the half the visitors took the lead when skipper Matt Young dummied around Cohen allowing Mark Thompson to blast the ball past Acton from 18 yards.

Three minutes into the second half and the Tigers had doubled their lead, Ben Tomlinson pulling the ball back to allow Young to calmly fire the ball past Acton.

John Branch fires in a shot during Tuesday's defeat

Vociferous penalty appeals from the Scholars for handball were waved away, as they were when Smith was brought down.

Cohen then headed over the bar as the Scholars began to push harder, and on 65 minutes the red card for a challenge on Tomlinson when he was through on goal. McIntosh curled in the free kick for Worksop's third.

The home response was immediate when Danny Bacon fouled Perrow in the area and the "Goal Machine" stepped up to fire the resultant penalty past Kennedy.

The pendulum swung the other way when a run through the middle by Jackson released Tomlinson who fired his shot past Acton.

Frantic

The action was becoming more frantic by the minute, Davies hitting the side netting in the 82nd minute and Acton stopping another Tomlinson charge at the death, but there was still time for Worksop to add a fifth in the 89th minute when McIntosh squeezed his second through a gap at the near post.

The defeat was completed in added time when Thompson's looped shot was palmed away by Acton but Jackson was there at the far post to slot in number six.

Record as Davies lifts Chasetown

CHASETOWN 2 FC UNITED OF MANCHESTER 0

A RECORD league attendance at the Scholars Ground of 1,089 saw Chasetown keep alive their play-off hopes with a 2-0 win over nine-man FC United of Manchester.

A goal at the end of each half by Richard Davies and Mark Branch was enough for the Scholars in a hard-fought game.

Branch was in top form last Saturday with a string of set-pieces.

A tight first half saw Chasetown guilty of conceding too many free kicks inside their own half, but it was the Scholars who would take the lead in first half stoppage time.

FC United had the ball in the net on 21 minutes after skipper Mike Norton nodded the ball down to Wolfenden to score, but the flag was up for offside and Scholars keeper Darren Acton then cleared from Simon Carden.

The Scholars would then enjoy their first clear cut chance on 25 minutes with Gary Hay about to head for goal, but keeper Sam Ashton plucked the ball from the striker's head after Ben Jevons had headed the ball into the box.

A succession of free kicks followed, with neither side finding a clear breakthrough.

Reduced

The decision by the Scholars to switch Davies into the front line paid off in the closing minutes of the half. His burst through on 43 minutes ended when Ashton came out off his line to hack the ball clear before, in stoppage time, Davies went one-on-one with the keeper and fired left-footed past his outstretched hand to put the hosts in front.

The visitors had the first chance after the break, but Wright's shot was blocked by Turner, and Hay thought he had scored on the hour mark when he fired under Ashton. The flag went up late for offside.

Chasetown had a narrow escape on 66 minutes when the defence blocked a shot and the ball went just wide of Acton's post, before Hay found another good chance when the ball was played into his path, but Ashton was able to clear.

A tangle between Turner and Norton saw the United skipper sent off for stamping on the Chasetown defender, and the visitors were reduced to nine men in the closing minutes. Wright was given his marching orders for an elbow on Branch, having picked up a booking moments previously.

The Scholars were now dominant, and in the last minute a Branch free kick went in through a crowd.

Tough lessons for youngsters

HEATH Hayes 2 CAUSEWAY UNITED 3

WITH several first teamers unavailable manager, Simon Davies took the opportunity to blood four players from the youth team.

Hayes got off to a shaky start, but still managed to reach the break with neither side scoring. The second half started in the worst possible manner when Brad Woolridge conceded a needless penalty which Aaron Lloyd converted.

Hayes came back strongly and Ben Haseley got the equaliser on 64 minutes. This shook the visitors and they then asserted their superiority and Lloyd and Andy Wells got to quick goals to put them back in command.

However, the young home side would not lie down and Haseley, who had been a fine example to his younger colleagues throughout, put them back into the game with a well worked goal on 84 minutes.

They pressed hard for the equaliser which their spirited efforts deserved, but the Causeway defence held firm.

PITMEN GALLOP INTO PLAY-OFFS

WEYMOUTH 2 HEDNESFORD TOWN 4

TWO late goals by Nick Wellecome and Danny Quinn secured a thrilling victory for Hednesford Town over unlucky Weymouth and guaranteed The Pitmen a place in the play-offs with two games to spare.

In a match full of drama and talking points, Rob Smith's side showed outstanding character to prevail after taking a two-nil lead, only to see that advantage wiped out before the hour mark by a Weymouth side whose desperate fight against relegation led them to test inspirational keeper Dan Crane to the limit.

Crane was a hero within five minutes when he dived to his right to save a well-struck penalty by Warren Byerley after the Weymouth striker had been brought down by Ben Bailey.

Flagging

The travelling Hednesford fans, some of whom showed evidence of their trip to the seaside with comedy inflatable mascots, had to wait until the 39th minute to celebrate the opening goal when Kyle Patterson cut inside Nick Jacobs and rifled the ball past Nortei.

The Pitmen's joy was increased four minutes later when Chris Clements doubled their lead, shooting from the edge of the area into the corner of the net. As the match came alive Crane twice made superb point-blank saves when his defence fell asleep at corners either side of the second goal.

The home side deservedly halved the deficit with the final kick of the first half when a scramble in the area saw the ball fall to Byerley who finished well to make the half-time break a little more uneasy for The Pitmen.

Weymouth were clearly buoyed by their goal and the home side forced Crane into another two quality saves – the first from Jamie Mudge on 50 minutes and the second a superb block from a Gerrig shot – in their search for an equaliser.

Patterson hit the crossbar for Hednesford and had a strong penalty shout inexplicably turned down by the referee, despite the linesman flagging, before The Terras finally got their equaliser.

Jamie Beasley out-paced and out-muscled Alex Melbourne to fire his shot into the roof of the net on 70 minutes.

The Pitmen rocked after the goal. Lewis Clarke's mishit cross shaved the post and when the away side did get into scoring positions both Clements and Wellecome took too long to shoot at goal and missed their opportunities.

As the clock ticked on to 87 minutes, Patterson charged down a Nortei kick and the ball bounced to the feet of Wellecome who gratefully slotted the ball into the net for a goal out of nothing.

Substitutes Marvin Robinson and Danny Quinn combined in stoppage time to finish the job as Quinn lethally side-footed in from ten yards to secure a victory that confirmed The Pitmen's place in the play-offs and keeps their supporters dreaming of a famous title winning season – should current leaders Truro City fail to get the one point they need to secure the Zamaresso Premier Division title over a massive Easter weekend.
